DAILY GAZETTE.

Address to the Wisconsin Eleventh.

The following eloquent address to the officers of the Wisconsin Eleventh, was delivered by Geo. C. Bates, Esq., upon the occasion of a dinner given to them at Chicago, on the recent passage of the regiment through that city, on their way to Missouri:

Officers of the Wisconsin Eleventh Regiment

The generous and laudable liberality of the managing officers and agents of the Chicago, Alton and St. Louis railroad company and the Chicago and Northwestern railroad company, who are not more distinguished for their energy and dispatch as railroad officers, than for their loyalty as citizens, and their courtesy and boundless hospitality as gentlemen, have spread this bounteous board for your enjoyment, under the roof of the time honored Tremont, and have invited me, a comparative stranger to them, and an entire stranger to you, to welcome you to this great metropolis of the northwest, and to bid you God speed on your journey from the northern lakes to the banks of the Missouri. You have taken leave of the beautiful oak lands, the silver lakelets, and broad and rich prairies of Wisconsin, where peace, and joy, and contentment reign, to endure amidst the sleet and storms, and snows of a northwestern winter, the grim and dreadful realities and sufferings of war, on the plains, along the rivers, and amidst the now desolated, and ruined, and blackened, and deserted homes of the once prosperous and beautiful Missouri.—The change to most of you is a great and trying one; for, as mere holiday soldiers, as carpet knights, who have not yet seen or realized the horrors of war, you know little of the onerous duties, the fearful responsibilities, and the dreadful sacrifices that lie along your pathway, and no one but that of God can see or tell how far or how many shall ever return to those dear homes, and precious wives, and bright-eyed children, you have left behind you. Your presence, Colonel, and yours, officers of the Wisconsin Eleventh, reflect the highest honor on yourselves, and add another and yet another leaf to the chaplet of immortal glory that Wisconsin, one of the fairest, youngest and most joyous daughters of this Union, has woven for herself during this dreadful crisis of our republic. It has been said that peace hath its triumphs as well as war; but no centuries of peace in our beloved Union could ever crown us with such immortal honor as the last eight months of war has done. The dormant energies of the government had slept so long that it seemed that they could know no waking. The mighty powers, and wealth, and energies of twenty millions of freemen had so long been paralyzed by the mesmeric power of peace, prosperity and success, that it seemed at first as if the north were an emasculated, enervated, and debauched people, "who neither knew their own rights, or by knowing, dare maintain." Europe, looking on at the distracted condition of the country, and the apparent slowness of the actions of the government against those arch fiends and secession devils who have rebelled against our beneficent and genial government, even as the angels and arch angels of the Evil One uprose against the institutes and ordinances of God, had already declared in their own courts, and had published through their wily diplomats over the whole European world, that the American Union was destroyed—that the United States had already ceased to exist. "Fuit Ilium"—Troy was. "Delenda Carthago est"—Carthage had been.

Behold the great mistake. At the call of congress you, the 500th part of a splendid army—not of conscripts, not of drafted men—but volunteers, intelligent, educated American citizens, are here to-day, and to-morrow's sunset shall behold your serried ranks, with 30,000 more such, on the banks of the Missouri, hand in hand, gathered around that time honored flag, ready to fight for it, ready to die for it. Strange, soldiers, does it seem to me, to meet here so gallant a regiment, but a twentieth part of what Wisconsin has already sent to the field.—But a few years since, and just as I had turned the period of manhood, I stood, on a lovely evening in June, on the plateau that crowns the amphitheatre of hills that surround the metropolis of Wisconsin and watched the sun as it sank to rest away beyond the western rivers and mountains, I looked off to Lake Michigan sleeping in all its beauty and calmness like a child upon its mother's breast. The smoke that curled from old Juneau's log cabin and relieved the beautiful back ground of sky and hill side, told of the only white settler then located on that beautiful spot. Between there and the Father of Waters lay one boundless waste of plain and woodland, and here and there, at remote distances, the log hut of the hunter and trapper, the stockade of an infantry company, or the hamlet and trading post of the engagees of the American Fur Company, constituted the entire population of what is now three empire states: Wisconsin, Iowa, and Minnesota. At the call of our country, Wisconsin has already furnished during the present year more volunteers for the war than at that period constituted the entire population of northern Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa and Minnesota. Noble, true hearted Wisconsin! Well may she point with pride to her magic and Minerva-like growth from a desert and wilderness to a garden and home of 800,000 freemen. Well may she point with pride and glory to that great net-work of railway, that encircles her zone from Lake Michigan to the Mississippi like the girdle of beauty that grasped the glaring waist of Venus; well may she point to her school houses planted side by side with the log-cabin of the pioneer, where her children are instructed in their duties as freemen, as patriots, as students, as Christians; well may she point with pride to her houses whose pointed spires, reaching to heaven, proclaim their dedication to God, and which are evidence of their religious and moral culture; but above all, can she point to you, soldiers, and your gallant fellowsoldiers, now almost twenty thousand strong, and say with pride, "These are my jewels." And looking back on the past and forward to the future, with conscious triumph in her eyes, well may she exclaim in the pride of conscious triumph—

> "Quis jam locus, inquit Achates,
> Quæ regio in terris, non nostri
> Plena laboris."

Officers of the Eleventh, the movements of that grand army of which you are so soon to become a conspicuous part, have already changed the entire aspect of public matters, and our position both at home and abroad. To-day, thank God, the stars and the stripes wave over not only the states of the north and northwest, but they flout the heavens in the Old Dominion, in the dark and bloody ground of Kentucky, Missouri, North Carolina, and even in chivalrous and brave South Carolina; and the citizens of Charleston and Savannah are put to sleepless beds at night by the evening guns and the tattoo of the Union troops who are quietly but steadily advancing over the sacred soil of the Carolinas and Georgia toward the gulf of Mexico, and their frightful dreams like those of the infamous Richard, are disturbed by the morning drum-beat and stirring reveille that salutes the stars and the stripes as they float in the morning air at Beaufort, at Pensacola, at Fortress Monroe. Nay more, Soldiers,—the spirit of the Northmen is fully aroused, and traitors and their infamous and lying dispatches that have sought protection like cowards, as they are, beneath the lion and the unicorn, on the decks of an English mail steamer, are seized in pursuance of the well settled rules of international law by a true Yankee sailor, and the infamous bearers of those dispatches are now sent to cool their blushes at their own infamy, at a fortress in Boston Harbor, right under the shadow of Bunker Hill. Day has dawned, soldiers, on the cause of truth and justice, and the Union. God smiles on the work and you go forth only to keep complete the triumph of that cause of the Union now so auspiciously begun. Beaufort, Port Royal, Fort Beauregard, and Belmont, are but precursors of yet nobler and brighter victories. Whilst the capture of Mason and Slidell from the British mail vessel "Trent," engaged in the transportation of ministers and dispatches contraband of war, has taught England herself that if she cannot enforce the proclamation of her noble Queen, yet that such traitors as Slidell and Mason cannot escape the lynx eye or the bold hands and brave hearts of such men as Wilkes and his gallant Yankee sailors. Go, and God's blessing go with you. It may be your fate never to return. So be it. Bear in mind that a soldier's grave is a nation's monument; that a nation's tears will water its sod, and thousands of generations will stop as they pass it, and say "there rests one of the gallant soldiers of the great army of the Union." If you fall, fall like brave men and true sons of Wisconsin,

> With your backs to the field, and your feet to the foe
> As victors exult, or in death be laid low,
> And leaving on earth no blot on your name,
> Look proudly to heaven from the death bed of fame.

GREAT REDUCTION
—IN—
The Prices
—OF—
SINGER & CO.'S
STANDARD MACHINES,

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes!

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $75.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the world for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes, Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The No. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized ... There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand, ... the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their sizes, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the twofold view of benefiting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the inventing, to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best and machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether imitations or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

DAILY GAZETTE.

Address to the Wisconsin Eleventh.

The following eloquent address to the officers of the Wisconsin Eleventh, was delivered by Geo. C. Bates, Esq., upon the occasion of a dinner given to them at Chicago, on the recent passage of the regiment through that city, on their way to Missouri:

Officers of the Wisconsin Eleventh Regiment:

The generous and laudable liberality of the managing officers and agents of the Chicago, Alton and St. Louis railroad company and the Chicago and Northwestern railroad company, who are not more distinguished for their energy and dispatch as railroad officers, than for their loyalty as citizens, and their courtesy and boundless hospitality as gentlemen, have spread this bounteous board for your enjoyment, under the roof of the time-honored Tremont, and have invited me, a comparative stranger to them, and an entire stranger to you, to welcome you to this great metropolis of the northwest, and to bid you God speed on your journey from the northern lakes to the banks of the Missouri. You have taken leave of the beautiful oak lands, the silver lakelets, and broad and rich prairies of Wisconsin, where peace, and joy, and contentment reign, to endure amidst the sleet and storms, and snows of a northwestern winter, the grim and dreadful realities and sufferings of war, on the plains, along the rivers, and amidst the now desolated, and ruined, and blackened, and deserted homes of the once prosperous and beautiful Missouri.—The change to most of you is a great and trying one; for, as mere holiday soldiers, as carpet knights, who have not yet seen or realized the horrors of war, you know little of the onerous duties, the fearful responsibilities, and the dreadful sacrifices that lie along your pathway, and no one but that of God can see or tell how far or how many shall ever return to those dear homes, and precious wives, and bright-eyed children, you have left behind you. Your presence, Colonel, and yours, officers of the Wisconsin Eleventh, reflect the highest honor on yourselves, and add another and yet another leaf to the chaplet of immortal glory that Wisconsin, one of the fairest, youngest and most joyous daughters of this Union, has woven for herself during this dreadful crisis of our republic. It has been said that peace hath its triumphs as well as war; but no centuries of peace in our beloved Union could ever crown us with such immortal honor as the last eight months of war has done. The dormant energies of the government had slept so long that it seemed that they could know no waking. The mighty powers, and wealth, and energies of twenty millions of freemen had so long been paralyzed by the mesmeric power of peace, prosperity and success, that it seemed at first as if the north were an emasculated, enervated, and debauched people, "who neither knew their own rights, or by knowing, dare maintain." Europe, looking on at the distracted condition of the country, and the apparent slowness of the actions of the government against those arch fiends and secession devils who have rebelled against our beneficent and genial government, even as the angels and arch-angels of the Evil One uprose against the institutes and ordinances of God, had already declared in their own courts, and had published through their wily diplomats over the whole European world, that the American Union was destroyed—that the United States had already ceased to exist. "Fuit Ilium"—Troy was. "Delenga Carthago est"—Carthage had been.

Behold the great mistake. At the call of congress you, the 500th part of a splendid army—not of conscripts, not of drafted men—but volunteers, intelligent, educated American citizens, are here to-day, and to-morrow's sunset shall behold your serried ranks, with 30,000 more such, on the banks of the Missouri, hand in hand, gathered around that time-honored flag, ready to fight for it, ready to die for it. Strange, soldiers, does it seem to me, to meet here so gallant a regiment, but a twentieth part of what Wisconsin has already sent to the field.—But a few years since, and just as I had turned the period of manhood, I stood, on a lovely evening in June, on the plateau that crowns the amphitheatre of hills that surround the metropolis of Wisconsin and watched the sun as it sank to rest away beyond the western rivers and mountains, I looked off to Lake Michigan sleeping in all its beauty and calmness like a child upon its mother's breast. The smoke that curled from old Juneau's log cabin and relieved the beautiful back ground of sky and hill side, told of the only white settler then located on that beautiful spot. Between there and the Father of Waters lay one boundless waste of plain and woodland, and here and there, at remote distances, the log hut of the hunter and trapper, the stockade of an infantry company, or the hamlet and trading post of the engagees of the American Fur Company, constituted the entire population of what is now three empire states—Wisconsin, Iowa, and Minnesota. At the call of our country, Wisconsin has already furnished during the present year more volunteers for the war than at that period constituted the entire population of northern Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa and Minnesota. Noble, true-hearted Wisconsin! Well may she point with pride to her magic and Minerva-like growth from a desert and wilderness to a garden and home of 800,000 freemen. Well may she point with pride and glory to that great net-work of railway, that encircles her zone from Lake Michigan to the Mississippi like the girdle of beauty that grasped the glaring waist of Venus; well may she point to her school houses planted side by side with the log-cabin of the pioneer, where her children are instructed in their duties as freemen, as patriots, as students, as Christians; well may she point with pride to her houses whose pointed spires, reaching to heaven, proclaim their dedication to God, and which are evidence of their religious and moral culture; but above all, can she point to you, soldiers, and your gallant fellowsoldiers, now almost twenty thousand strong, and say with pride, "These are my jewels." And looking back on the past and forward to the future, with conscious triumph in her eyes, well may she exclaim in the pride of conscious triumph—

> "Quis jam locus, inquit Achate,
> Quæ regio in terris, non natu
> Pleana laboris."

Officers of the Eleventh, the movements of that grand army of which you are so soon to become a conspicuous part, have already changed the entire aspect of public matters, and our position both at home and abroad. To-day, thank God, the stars and the stripes wave over not only the states of the north and northwest, but they flout the heavens in the Old Dominion, in the dark and bloody ground of Kentucky, Missouri, North Carolina, and even in chivalrous and brave South Carolina; and the citizens of Charleston and Savannah are put to sleepless beds at night by the evening guns and the tattoo of the Union troops who are quietly but steadily advancing over the sacred soil of the Carolinas and Georgia toward the gulf of Mexico, and their frightful dreams like those of the infamous Richard, are disturbed by the morning drum-beat and stirring reveille that salutes the stars and the stripes as they float in the morning air at Beaufort, at Pensacola, at Fortress Monroe. Nay more, Soldiers,—the spirit of the Northmen is fully aroused, and traitors and their infamous and lying dispatches that have sought protection like cowards, as they are, beneath the lion and the unicorn, on the decks of an English mail steamer, are seized in pursuance of the well-settled rules of international law by a true Yankee sailor, and the infamous bearers of those dispatches are now sent to cool their blushes at their own infamy, at a fortress in Boston Harbor, right under the shadow of Bunker Hill. Day has dawned, soldiers, on the cause of truth and justice, and the Union. God smiles on the work and you go forth only to keep complete the triumph of that cause of the Union now so auspiciously begun. Beaufort, Port Royal, Fort Beauregard, and Belmont, are but precursors of yet nobler and brighter victories. Whilst the capture of Mason and Slidell from the British mail vessel "Trent," engaged in the transportation of ministers and dispatches contraband of war, has taught England herself that if she cannot enforce the proclamation of her noble Queen, yet that such traitors as Slidell and Mason cannot escape the lynx eyes or the bold hands and brave hearts of such men as Wilkes and his gallant Yankee sailors. Go, and God's blessing go with you. It may be your fate never to return. So be it. Bear in mind that a soldier's grave is a nation's monument; that a nation's tears will water its sod, and thousands of generations will stop as they pass it, and say "there rests one of the gallant soldiers of the great army of the Union." If you fall, fall like brave men and true sons of Wisconsin,

> With your backs to the field, and your feet to the foe;
> As victors exult, or in death be laid low;
> And leaving on earth no blot on your name,
> Look proudly to heaven from the death-bed of fame.

GREAT REDUCTION —IN— The Prices —OF— SINGER & CO.'S STANDARD MACHINES,

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $75.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

LEATHER WORK,

In Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis.

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

The Property of a Rebel Preserved.

If the government intends to confiscate any of the property of rebels, the Arlington estate of Gen. Lee affords a good opportunity. It is situated opposite Washington, in plain sight of the White House, is surrounded by our armies, and is necessary to the defence of the capitol of the nation. Instead of confiscating or destroying this property of a rank rebel, Arlington has been under the especial protection of Gen. McDowell, ever since the war commenced. While other property all around it has been used for the accommodation of our soldiers and erecting fortifications, Lee's property is actually undergoing improvements as we learn from an army letter: "New out-buildings are put up around the mansion, and the roads are considerably improved. Near the mansion, and from a half to a full mile around it, on all sides, no timber has been cut, but beyond that it has been slaughtered. I hear that Lee wrote to Gen. McDowell, asking, as a favor, that no timber be cut on the estate, and I know that, a few days since, when we wanted some logs to build a stable of, Gen. McDowell would'nt let anybody cut near the spot, but we had to go away off beyond the estate to get them. This is very considerate—very kind, indeed,—when it is one of the first principles of the rebels on the line to destroy all they cannot carry away of the property of Union men that falls into their hands. Still Gen. McDowell is right. The troops have been careful not to deface or destroy anything on the estate, and everything is spared. Hunter's house, not a great ways off, met with a worse fate, being pillaged, and then broken up to make flooring for soldier's tents."

A Slight Difference of Opinion.

There was a disagreement between Secretaries Cameron and Smith, in their speeches at the supper given to Geo. D. Prentice, in Washington, on Wednesday evening. Secretary Cameron declared that as a last resort we ought to arm every man who desires to strike for human liberty. Secretary Smith protested that the administration contemplated no such policy, and that if twenty millions of freemen could not single handed, subdue this rebellion, they ought to give it up.

From this there would appear to be a disagreement in the cabinet in relation to this matter. Secretary Smith would let the nation perish rather than accept aid from the slave; we think he would not carry this principle into practice in regard to his own life. If Smith should be drowning and a negro should offer to help him, we think the instincts of the man would prevail over the education of the politician.

After a few months the Secretary of the department of Indiana will change his mind, and a new cabinet minister will be wanted. This war will not, with the consent of the people be protracted a great while longer, to satisfy the whims of dough-face politicians, when it could be ended immediately by doing justice to four millions of people.

A Precedent.

Should England protest against the overhauling of the steamer Trent, having on board the rebel plenipotentiaries, it may be pertinent to remind her of some quite recent precedents in her own history. Here is one: When Thomas. F. Meagher escaped from a British penal colony, he sought refuge, if our memory serves us correctly, on board an American vessel. The vessel was boarded by English officers and thoroughly searched; but fortunately the search was unsuccessful. Our government did not consider its flag insulted, and demanded no redress for the "insult."

The New York Herald, which is no lover of the democracy, says three to one of the volunteers from that city are democrats, but the shoddy is all on the other side—the republicans have furnished all the shoddy, and received all the army steals. Just so out here.—Madison Patriot.

So brazen a falsehood as this ought to make even Pump Carpenter blush. Every intelligent man knows that no such state of things exists in Wisconsin, and every candid man will admit it.

Fremont's Insubordination.—We learn from very good authority, that Gen. Fremont has expressed his regret that he did not know the object of Cameron and Gen. Thomas' visit of inspection to his department, or he would have arrested both and detained them as prisoners. Mr. Cameron deceived him by writing him a letter in which he assured him his object in going to Missouri was to disabuse the public of injurious rumors affecting his (F.'s) character.—Albany Argus.

The above is a specimen of the reckless charges made against Gen. Fremont. The statement carries its own refutation in its improbability.

A paragraph, originating with the Chicago Journal, purporting to give the politics of the colonels of the several Wisconsin regiments still circulates. It contains two errors. Col. Hamilton (now general) and Col. Chapin are republicans, not democrats as stated by the paragraph in question.

Ashland, Burnett, Clark, Dallas, Douglas, Dunn, Eau Claire, Kewaunee, La Fayette and La Pointe counties are to be heard from officially. From Washington.

Extract from a private letter to a gentleman in this city:

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17th 1861.

I did not write you yesterday, I had just taken up my pen to do so when an unusually jubilant conversation broke out in the "Ordinance Department" just across the passage from my room, and on going to see what was up got the news of the return of our fishing party down about the West Indies. It was such a glorious haul that I could not think of doing any thing but crow! I have for years held Old Mason in utter contempt, and felt awfully galled to have him go swelling off to England in spite of the "yankee blockade." Although I read the despatch I could hardly believe it and thought I would step over to the chief clerk's office and hear from headquarters, but at the door I met Senator Wilson all agrin who assured me it was all right—"that is," said he "if they don't let them off on parole!" I trust now that his mightiness James M. Mason may have time for a retrospect of his tyrannical life. How dreadfully he will hate to go to a yankee lockup. He'll pine no doubt for the walls of Monroe rather than Warren. About a week ago I saw an article in one of the Richmond papers on "Our Ministers to England and France—Messrs. Mason and Slidell!" They were declared to be "safe on their way;" that "they went direct from one of our own harbors and not by the way of Vera Cruz either;" and that "the yankee's curiosity would be gratified in due time, how our Ministers went to England!" For one I am glad we found out so soon, and that they are going by the way of Boston Harbor! I trust that the F F V's will condescend to make a good long stop in the neighborhood of Bunker Hill. I guess it would be well enough to keep him there till that predicted "roll call." It seems he "protested" against going on board the yankee war steamer, and required "Lincoln's minion" to put his hand on his majesty's shoulder. I expect that was so as to have the thing look sacriligious in the eyes of all the christian nations, and furnish undoubted cause for "my honored state" to take the matter in hand! It is understood too that the great "Envoy and Minister Plenipotentiary" sent his written protest to our little government at Washington. I trust it will receive the early attention of Congress and be referred to a select committee!

It seems that the families of the two ambassadors were along, and that they did not come back. Its a pretty considerable of a straw, as showing what the real object of the party was in going abroad "bag and baggage!" It looks a little like "hanging together" so as to be out of danger of "hanging separate," as Franklin said.—But that cursed San Jacinto has sadly frustrated the arrangement. I hope now the Richmond editor will lift the veil of secrecy, and redeem his promise by informing the "curious Yankees HOW OUR MINISTERS WENT TO ENGLAND."

I have not seen any expression of public opinion as to the effect this feat will have upon England. I am not enough of a diplomat to know whether the act can be brought under sanction of our treaty with England respecting the giving up of criminals. If so it will be all right, though I presume the "thunderer" will mutter about it. As "reciprocity" was our card this time, and swept the board so effectually I presume the "Times" will require that all the legal steps shall have been taken—that there shall have been no nigging in shuffle, cut or deal, or else the play will be declared not "according to Hoyle," and of course a quarrel will ensue.

Monday, Nov. 18th, 1861.

I wrote a little yesterday and will add a few lines this morning. The Intelligencer comes out this morning with a leading article on the arrest, the substance of which is that the commander of the San Jacinto made but one legal mistake, and that was that he did not "bring the English steamer in as a prize!" If that is so John Bull may as well vote Capt. Wilkes a pension to the amount of the worth of the steamer and cargo.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 21.

Gen. Halleck has issued orders, that in consequence of the important information respecting the number and condition of our forces being conveyed to the enemy by fugitive slaves, no such persons shall hereafter be permitted to enter the lines of any camp or any forces on the march; and any now within such lines will be immediately excluded therefrom.

The General also calls particular attention of all officers commanding posts or troops in the field, to the importance of preventing unauthorized persons of every description from entering or leaving our lines, and of observing the greatest precaution in the employment of agents or clerks in confidential positions.

The General also directs all the staff officers of the department, whose staff duties have closed under the recent special order from Washington, but who still hold commissions in the regular army, or volunteers mustered into the service of the United States, to immediately report in person, if in St. Louis, or by letter if elsewhere, to these headquarters.

The latest accounts from Price place him in Barry county, making preparations to advance on Springfield.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.

The British gunboat Racer has arrived.

The United States steam transport Baltic, Capt. Comstock, arrived at three P. M. from Port Royal, where she left on Monday the 18th at six o'clock A. M. She towed the United States gunbort Curlew, Lieut. Walmaug, to Sandy Hook.

Col. Allen reports nothing new at Hilton Head. Everything remained in the same condition as left by the Atlantic. He has in his possession about $19,000 in treasury notes which he is to forward to the friends of the New Hampshire 4th regiment.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.

The gunboat Curlew arrived from Port Royal. Her machinery is damaged. When she left the English frigate Immortalize was entering the harbor of Port Royal.—The post office department received 1,500 letters from Hilton Head, per last arrival from there. Government will establish a post office there.

During the week the treasury department will probably take action with regard to custom regulations at Port Royal.

A pamphlet has been privately circulated, making serious charges against General Meigs. The author is an architect, who is desirous of superintending the capitol extension.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 21.

Secession reports are circulating this eveneding that our troops in Northampton county have met with resistance, but they are without truth.

A reconnoisance was made to-day nearly to Vienna, without seeing the enemy.—Prof. Lowe made two balloon ascensions. The only evidence of the presence of rebels were their camp fires near Fairfax Court House, about fifteen miles from here.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.

Lord Lyons has made no offensive comments upon the Mason and Slidell affair.—The reports to the prejudice of that minister which have been put in circulation are positively contradicted in diplomatic circles here, and it is quite certain that Lord Lyons will commit no breach of courtesy. If he has any communications to offer they will be made in official form; but there is no indication that such action is contemplated. The fact in the case is very clear, and that our government ought to seize the rebel commissioners is too clearly established to admit of much argument.

Col. McLeod Murphy's regiment gave an exhibition of the mode of laying a pontoon bridge over the Anacosta river. The work was rapidly and skillfully performed.

Gov. Pierpont and staff have arrived here from Wheeling, Virginia.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.

The Asia arrived at 7 P. M. A meeting of the shareholders of the Great Eastern had been held. The directors report was adopted, and a resolution was passed to raise £25,000 in 10 per cent. debentures to equip her for sea. It was expected she would leave Liverpool again in February.

The British men-of-war Conqueror and Sansparel would embark marines the day the Asia sailed, and forthwith sail for Mexico.

The Times thinks the operations of the expedition will be very easy, but difficulties may arise from the different political sympathies of the three powers.

It was reported that the federal steamer Jas. Adger, now at Southampton, goes to the Mediterranean to look after privateers.

LONDON, Nov. 10.

At the Lord Mayor's banquet, the mayor proposed the foreign ambassadors, and coupled the name of Adams, who replied that his mission to England was to promote and perpetuate friendly relations between the two countries.

Palmerston said although circumstances may, for the time, threaten to inferfere with the supply of cotton, the temporary evil will be productive of permanent good." We shall find in various quarters of the globe sure and ample supply, which will render us no more dependent. We witness with affliction the lamentable difficulties among our American cousins, but it is not for us to pass judgment in their disputes. Lord Palmerston, in conclusion, expressed the hope of a speedy restoration of harmony and peace.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.

It has been officially ascertained that the government has now in camp and in the process of formation, 600,000 volunteers, and the enlistments for the regular service are more numerous than heretofore.

ROLLA, Nov. 22.

Advices from the southwest are to the effect that Price has abandoned his position at Cassville, and is moving toward his old camp at Neosho.

About 4,000 of Price's army, under Gen. Harris, were on the Kansas line, directly west of Carthage, with the evident intention of entering that state, and ravaging its southern counties.

Harris' force was principally cavalry and infantry.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DESPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.

The Mozart Hall democracy last evening nominated the Hon. Fernando Wood, for mayor.

The People's Democratic Union and Rent-Payers organization met yesterday afternoon at the Cooper Institute, and nominated John Kerr, the brewer and excise commissioner, for mayor.

In the board of councilmen last evening, the resolutions presented by the aldermen at their last meeting, tendering the thanks of the people of New York to Capt. Wilkes for his meritorious conduct in causing the arrest of Mason and Slidell, and offering the hospitalities of the city to him, which were referred to the committee on national affairs, were unanimously concurred in.

An ordinance appropriating $500,000 for the relief of the families of the volunteer soldiers of this city was adopted.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.

Tribune correspondence—The papers in the case of Gen. Fremont have for some days been in the hands of Major Lee, judge advocate of the army, who to day made his report to Gen. McClellan. Accompanying the report were charges substantially the same as those preferred by Col. Blair.

Gen. Anderson recently expressed to Gov. Andrew his strong desire that a regiment of Massachusetts soldiers might be sent to Kentucky. He was sure that no sectional feeling would hinder the men of Massachusetts from receiving a hearty welcome in Henry Clay's state.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.

Times' correspondence.—Advices received by the government from Great Britain represent that though much sourness of feeling is evident toward the United States, yet there was a manifest feeling adverse to a war, and that the sentiment in favor of maintaining a strict neutrality was daily strengthening.

Advices from France indicate that the feeling on the part of that government toward the United States is more cordial than ever.

The government has no evidence of any rebel privateer steamer being on the seas, except the Sumter, and she is enabled to elude capture.

Com. Dupont has sent to the navy department the original South Carolina ordinance of secession, beautifully engrossed upon parchment, with the autographs of the South Carolina seceders, headed by Gen. Jameson. The photographs of all the members were also found at Beaufort, with the ordinance, and a large number of other important documents.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 22.

Peterson's Detector cautions the public against counterfeit 10s on the Waterbury Bank, of Conn. It is the best executed and most dangerous counterfeit that has been out for years.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22d.

As far as can be ascertained Lord Lyons has taken no action on the subject of Mason and Slidell's arrest, but will probably await instructions. There has not been even an official conversation between him and the proper department, concerning it. Those who are intimately acquainted with Lord Lyons believe he has observed his usual discretion in refraining from a premature expression of opinion.

The steamer Wyandotte ran the blockade last night and reached the navy yard this morning. She was not fired at. The steamer E. B. Hale also ran the blockade last night, having on board a large quantity of ammunition and ordnance stores generally. Two schooners, loaded with wood, ran the blockade successfully on Wednesday night. The enemy is apparently at work on a new battery at Possum Nose, which is far ahead of the others.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 22.

The boat from Old Point has arrived, but brings no news. It was reported a flag of truce had come from Norfolk with several women and children.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 22.

Col. Mulligan arrived at the depot last night at 9 o'clock where he was tendered the hospitalities of the city by Mayor Hatch. He was then escorted to the Burnett house and being called to the balcony was addressed by Hon. Henry Stanbury. Col. Mulligan replied in a short speech, which was enthusiastically applauded by the large assembly. Col. Mulligan will speak at the Catholic Institute this evening and on Monday will probably address a citizens meeting.

The Markets.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.

Flour shade firmer, sales at 5,50a5,60 super western, and 5,65a5,85 common to medium extra western. Wheat market 1a2c better—good export demand, sales 190,000 bushels, 1,24a1,26 Chicago spring; 1,26a1,27 Racine spring; 1,27a1,28 Milwaukee club.

STAMPEDE FROM THE PATRIARCHAL RELATIONS.—Capt. Bennett with a party of fifty cavalry ventured four miles within the rebel pickets beyond Alexandria. He reports that many of the dwellings, built in fine taste and surrounded by beautiful gardens and shrubbery, have been deserted by their owners, who have not even taken care of their contents. He saw silver ware and other valuables lying on the tables and in the closets, the buildings in their appointments bearing evidence of having been abandoned in great haste. Many of the negroes that he met begged most piteously of him to take them in safety to his camp. There was a general desire expressed by them to come within the federal lines.

Seven negroes belonging to the estate of the late John A. Washington fled from one of his plantations beyond the Occoquan, were brought into Fort Lyon, whence they were sent to Washington.

Gen. Hooker made a reconnoisance at Mathias Point. On returning, the troops were followed by numbers of slaves. One gang numbered 50.

Judge Freeso has heard several applications during the past twenty four hours for judicial aid in the capture of runaway negroes. They were all refused.

REBEL ADVICES FROM COLUMBUS.—From parties who left Columbus on Wednesday, and who are in a position to know fully what they state, we learn that Gen. Polk is still suffering from the injury he received on the occasion of the bursting of the cannon there, and Gen. Pillow was in command. A force was at work cutting down the timber on the Missouri side, opposite Columbus, so as to leave no ambush for the enemy in any event. The people on the Missouri side are in utter consternation, and are flying from their houses. While the Kentucky was up the river on Wednesday, her captain kindly ferried over five families to this side, with their teams and household articles. Fugitives say there is a large amount of corn and hogs in the country, all of which they expect to fall into the hands of the enemy. It has been forcibly kept there by the blockade. The people were destroying or removing all flats, landing-boats, and ferry-boats, that were along the shore. The ferry-boat that crossed near Point Pleasant had been destroyed. A soldier who had been taken prisoner, but who escaped from Cairo, reported that soldiers were coming into that place in great numbers, and that the day before he left (Wednesday) nine regiments arrived. There was a general expectation at Columbus that there will soon be an invasion of a more serious character than the late one at Belmont.—Memphis Appeal, Nov. 16.

Commodore Charles Wilkes, who took the responsibility of seizing the rebel emissaries, has long been most favorably known. He was born in New York, in 1805, and has since been in service for forty three years. From 1833 to 1842 he was in command of the United States exploring expedition in the Pacific and Southern Oceans. His narrative of this expedition, in five volumes, is familiar to all, at least by name. He is also the author of a work entitled "Western America," which contains valuable information relating to California and Oregon. When he performed the exploit for which he will receive the thanks of every patriot, he was on the way home from the coast of Africa.

THE PORK TRADE.—The market for hogs opens tamely. The low prices render feeders tardy in sending forward supplies, and although the weather is favorable, very little, comparatively has been done by packers. Prices opened at $3.10; but several contracts having been made for pork and lard, delivered this month, quotations advanced under a competion for hogs, until to-day they reached $3,35@3,40, and the market was leading strongly for $3,50, until dampened by a heavy decline in pork in New York. After this news there were sales at $3.15. Packers were never more at sea than they are this year. Old lands marks are not of much account. Everything, or pretty much everything, depends on the duration of the war, and as this is uncertain, no one is wise enough or sharp enough to see through the pork trade.—Feeders consider it hard to sell at $3.25, or less, and packers having lost fifty per cent. on last season's business, are naturally very cautious. The latter are quite willing that the former shall take the risks of the trade if they are so disposed, and those who prefer to pack will receive all reasonable aid in the shape of advances.—Cincinnati Gazette, 19th.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.

MORE BLUNDERING IN THE ARMY.—A foraging party went out yesterday from Gen. Wadsworth's brigade. Having procured a large supply of corn, they started back in the afternoon. Five of the wagons were detached from the main body, and halted in the road two and a half miles from Falls Church, the men stacking their guns and moving towards a farm house to get something to eat. A party of rebel cavalry, who had been scouting in the neighborhood, availed themselves of the opportunity thus presented, suddenly rushed between our soldiers and their guns—thus rendering them powerless for resistance. The consequence was the capture of five loaded wagons, and, it is supposed, thirty one prisoners. About ten of the same federal party certainly escaped, and it may be that some of the others may yet return, as it is not improbable that they sought refuge in the woods. They all belong to the 13th New York regiment. The place where they were taken is beyond our own lines, and this unfortunate event is the result of their own carelessness.—N. Y. World, Special Dispatch.

In the attack on the really formidable forts at Port Royal, a distinguished naval officer writes that the very boldness of the attack assured its success:

Instead of fighting the forts at anchor, and exposed to their enfilading fire in the channel, Flag Officer Dupont steamed the entire squadron through the passage and attacked the batteries in flank from the inside of the bay, thus preventing half their guns from being brought to bear upon us, and keeping entirely out of range of one fort, while raining shells upon the other. The vessels followed each other in slow circle, the Wabash leading, each delivering its fire as the guns would bear, and as long as the guns were in range. As the tide rose, the circles swept nearer the shore, and the most effective firing was done at one thousand or twelve hundred yards.

THE THREE CAMP DISEASES.—Soldiers in camp suffer from three diseases: diarrhoea, rheumatism and fever. The commonest cause of diarrhoea is bad water; its cure, complete rest, and abstinence from every kind of food except boiled rice. All ordinary cases will yield to this treatment in 24 hours or less. Rheumatism is usually brought on, not by getting wet, but by remaing in wet clothes. Hard drinkers are particularly liable to bad attacks. To avoid rheumatism, keep dry, wear flannel and keep the digestion sound. Fevers are generally caught after dark in the open air.—A man going out on night duty should never go hungry, and never stand still longer than necessary. Good food and active exercise will generally keep a man well, unless the air is uncommonly deleterious. To cure a case of not very severe fever, nothing seems so efficacious as a change of air. It is said that the removal of a patient only a few miles, often works an immediate improvement in his condition. In scouting along the edge of a swamp at night, there is no danger so long as the party keeps on on the windward side of it. These doctrines are laid down in the writings of army surgeons and of physicians who have given much attention to the subjects discussed, and ought therefore to be trustworthy.—New York Ledger.

A writer in the Boston Transcript comments bitterly on the conduct of Gen. Stone: "He is known to be in high favor with the Maryland secessionists. These fellows express the greatest confidence in Gen. Stone; and why shouldn't they? He orders the troops under his command to obey and observe the laws of Maryland, which forbid the harbor of fugitive slaves, &c.; protect known traitors who have been arrested by subordinate officers for making signals to the enemy, and when brought before him have been discharged with a reprimand to the officers making such arrests; sends back all negroes found in the camps to whoever claims them; and to crown his recommendation to their favor, has needlessly, foolishly, criminally, ordered our Massachusetts troops to unavailing slaughter."

A BAD THREAT.—The rebels, it appears, hold Col. Corcoran and other officers as hostages for the good behavior of our courts. If we, in the regular exercise of the judicial authority of the nation, condemn any of their pirates to death, they will execute our officers as a retaliation. This is a mere threat; but if they should be wicked enough to hang Col. Corcoran, let us say to them that there are Irishmen enough in this city alone, able and disposed to leave nothing of Charleston but the turkey buzzards.—N. Y. Post.

A PRECEDENT FOR THE ARREST OF MESSRS. MASON AND SLIDELL.—The New York Commercial Advertiser of Saturday evening says:

A similar proceeding on the part of an English vessel of war will probably be within the recollection of some of our readers. We refer to the boarding of the ship Hercules, of Salem, Mass., Capt. Edward West, in a Sardinian port, some 50 years ago, and forcibly taking from on board Lucien Bonaparte, then on his way to the United States. The Hercules put into port on account of the sickness of Lucien Bonaparte, and at his earnest request. An English man-of-war was in port, got wind of the passenger on board, and sent a boatswain with an armed crew, who took Lucien away by force, carried him on board the man-of-war, and he was taken a prisoner to England.

FRANK P. BLAIR.—The Buffalo Commercial mentions the report that Frank P. Blair is likely to be appointed major general of the Missouri state troops, to be organized under a new general order. If he should be appointed, it is exceedingly problematic whether his military career will be a very brilliant one. Whatever else may have happened in Missouri, Col. Blair is pretty effectually used up as a public man.—Sandusky Register.

THE LATEST INVENTION.—The latest invention of which we have heard is a chewing machine—in other words, a little mill intended for toothless people and those who cannot properly masticate their food. Such an article is advertised in the London Lancet. It is fastened to the dinner table, goes with a crank, and is said to mince the food very nicely.

The Manner of Giving Orders.

The following description of the different styles of giving orders, among the officers on the Potomac, is extracted from a letter from the Wisconsin second to the Milwaukee Sentinel:

I have been thinking over some of the amusing things to tell you about—something that we run against in camp every day. I know of nothing that creates more real dissension than the intonation of orders given. The style is as various as the style of trees in a forest, or the items in a first class family newspaper. Now it is a mistaken idea that unfledged officers fall into—that the regular army style is to give orders in so mixed up and unique a style that nobody can understand them. It may be so, but Gen. McDowell always gives his orders clearly, the precautionary word in a distinct voice so that every man can understand him; the order itself in a sharp ringing tone that echoes along the line and impresses itself clearly upon the mind of every man. Gen. King's orders are given clearly and distinctly. Gen. Sherman's and Gen. Stevens' were the same. So with all the officers above the rank of lieutenant. This latter class are not so particular, and if a regular can have the opportunity of drilling volunteers, the orders are so mutilated, so deficient of any resemblance to what the tactics lay down, that nobody can understand them. Instead of giving the words a pronunciation, they are distorted. A large number of the volunteer officers, instead of taking their cue from their Generals, follow in the footsteps of the subalterns, and imagine as the soldiers say, "they are cutting a day in two." In every regiment, instead of heering the order given thus, "Order Arms," you hear it "der ums," run together, and coming like a grunt from away down deep in the throat, the mouth and tongue having nothing to do with it. To say the least, it sounds disgusting. Then "Halt," is transmogrified into "hol," and "march" into "arch," "pouch," and not unfrequently into "itch." Hundreds of times I have seen troops confounded by an order, not a word of which was intelligible, all sounding, as near as I can give it on paper, "ile flan, ile haut," intended for "by the right flank—by file right," and so on to the end of the chapter.

These are, of course, for the infantry. The cavalry and artillery doing their work on horses, it is excusable in deviating from the general rule. Here the orders are always given distinctly, yet with a prolongation, that comes out ringing and reverbating a long time. It is necessary, for horses cannot be moved like men. The order comes, "r-r-r-right turn, m-a-r-c-h!" with about ten prolonged "h's" on the end of the last word; and so on through all their orders. I think, and so do many others, that volunteer officers, instead of endeavoring to adopt the army style, would do far better to study to give their commands in a clear and distinct voice, as if they wished to be understood and obeyed rather than to confound their troops with unintelligible, gutteral sounds, and you may tell the officers of the new regiments just so, if you please.

NOVEL OCCUPATION.—One of the items in the report of Wednesday, which failed to reach us, was the following:

BALTIMORE, Nov. 20.

Somewhat of a sensation was produced this morning in the western section of the city by the provost marshal sending a large force of police to Miller's Hotel and seizing the whole establishment and all its contents including a large number of horses, the contents of the bar room, safe and vault.

The object of this movement is said to be to prostrate the mail arrangements of the rebel sympathisers here. It is supposed that from this hotel there has been regular communication kept up to West river and thence to Virginia. The proprietors of this hotel have not been suspected generally, and are regarded as loyal men, but it is supposed certain employees or lodgers have been receiving and transmitting letters south. A number of letters have been seized but have not yet been examined. Two parties, Wm. Hart and John Earl, have been arrested.

BUSINESS IN CHARLESTON.—A letter from Charleston found at Port Royal, is gloomy enough. It says:

"We are doing nothing on Broad street. The brokers all seem to be collapsed.—There is no use to be paying rents and getting back nothing for it.

"There is nothing of any import now in the city. We are looking anxiously to the news of the great battle daily expected on the Potomac. Harriet made the butter this morning, and then the cake. I haven't made as much in a month! But may make an assignment in another, provided I can get anything meanwhile to assign."

Jayne's Ague Mixture

Is an infallible remedy for Fever and Ague. The experience of many years in almost every climate proves that where used strictly in accordance with the directions, it has rarely failed to cure—not only by breaking up the chills, but by removing the morbid habits of the system, preventing a recurrence of the disease.

Fever and Ague, though not in itself dangerous, is apt, unless speedily removed, to have such a pernicious effect on the system, as to engender disorders much more baneful than itself, and which not only render the afterlife of the patient miserable, but are in themselves often fatal. A prompt and effectual remedy is therefore what is wanted, and as such DR. D JAYNE's AGUE MIXTURE is confidently recommended. For sale by G. R. CURTIS,

The Property of a Rebel Preserved.

If the government intends to confiscate any of the property of rebels, the Arlington estate of Gen. Lee affords a good opportunity. It is situated opposite Washington, in plain sight of the White House, is surrounded by our armies, and is necessary to the defence of the capitol of the nation. Instead of confiscating or destroying this property of a rank rebel, Arlington has been under the especial protection of Gen. McDowell, ever since the war commenced. While other property all around it has been used for the accommodation of our soldiers and erecting fortifications, Lee's property is actually undergoing improvements as we learn from an army letter: "New out-buildings are put up around the mansion, and the roads are considerably improved. Near the mansion, and from a half to a full mile around it, on all sides, no timber has been cut, but beyond that it has been slaughtered. I hear that Lee wrote to Gen. McDowell, asking, as a favor, that no timber be cut on the estate, and I know that, a few days since, when we wanted some logs to build a stable of, Gen. McDowell would'nt let anybody cut near the spot, but we had to go away off beyond the estate to get them. This is very considerate—very kind, indeed,—when it is one of the first principles of the rebels on the line to destroy all they cannot carry away of the property of Union men that falls into their hands. Still Gen. McDowell is right. The troops have been careful not to deface or destroy anything on the estate, and everything is spared. Hunter's house, not a great ways off, met with a worse fate, being pillaged, and then broken up to make flooring for soldier's tents."

A Slight Difference of Opinion.

There was a disagreement between Secretaries Cameron and Smith, in their speeches at the supper given to Geo. D. Prentice, in Washington, on Wednesday evening. Secretary Cameron declared that as a last resort we ought to arm every man who desires to strike for human liberty. Secretary Smith protested that the administration contemplated no such policy, and that if twenty millions of freemen could not single handed, subdue this rebellion, they ought to give it up.

From this there would appear to be a disagreement in the cabinet in relation to this matter. Secretary Smith would let the nation perish rather than accept aid from the slave; we think he would not carry this principle into practice in regard to his own life. If Smith should be drowning and a negro should offer to help him, we think the instincts of the man would prevail over the education of the politician.

After a few months the Secretary of the department of Indiana will change his mind, and a new cabinet minister will be wanted. This war will not, with the consent of the people be protracted a great while longer, to satisfy the whims of doughface politicians, when it could be ended immediately by doing justice to four millions of people.

A Precedent.

Should England protest against the overhauling of the steamer Trent, having on board the rebel plenipotentiaries, it may be pertinent to remind her of some quite recent precedents in her own history. Here is one: When Thomas. F. Meagher escaped from a British penal colony, he sought refuge, if our memory serves us correctly, on board an American vessel. The vessel was boarded by English officers and thoroughly searched; but fortunately the search was unsuccessful. Our government did not consider its flag insulted, and demanded no redress for the "insult."

The New York Herald, which is no lover of the democracy, says three to one of the volunteers from that city are democrats, but the shoddy is all on the other side—the republicans have furnished all the shoddy, and received all the army steals. Just so out here.—Madison Patriot.

So brazen a falsehood as this ought to make even Pump Carpenter blush. Every intelligent man knows that no such state of things exists in Wisconsin, and every candid man will admit it.

Fremont's Insubordination.—We learn from very good authority, that Gen. Fremont has expressed his regret that he did not know the object of Cameron and Gen. Thomas' visit of inspection to his department, or he would have arrested both and detained them as prisoners. Mr. Cameron deceived him by writing him a letter in which he assured him his object in going to Missouri was to disabuse the public of injurious rumors affecting his (F.'s) character.—Albany Argus.

The above is a specimen of the reckless charges made against Gen. Fremont. The statement carries its own refutation in its improbability.

A paragraph, originating with the Chicago Journal, purporting to give the politics of the colonels of the several Wisconsin regiments still circulates. It contains two errors. Col. Hamilton (now general) and Col. Chapin are republicans, not democrats as stated by the paragraph in question.

From Washington.

Extract from a private letter to a gentleman in this city:

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17th 1861.

I did not write you yesterday, I had just taken up my pen to do so when an unusually jubilant conversation broke out in the "Ordinance Department" just across the passage from my room, and on going to see what was up got the news of the return of our fishing party down about the West Indies. It was such a glorious haul that I could not think of doing any thing but crow! I have for years held Old Mason in utter contempt, and felt awfully galled to have him go swelling off to England in spite of the "yankee blockade." Although I read the despatch I could hardly believe it and thought I would step over to the chief clerk's office and hear from headquarters, but at the door I met Senator Wilson all agrin who assured me it was all right—"that is," said he "if they don't let them off on parole!" I trust now that his mightiness James M. Mason may have time for a retrospect of his tyrannical life. How dreadfully he will hate to go to a yankee lockup. He'll pine no doubt for the walls of Monroe rather than Warren. About a week ago I saw an article in one of the Richmond papers on "Our Ministers to England and France—Messrs. Mason and Slidell!" They were declared to be "safe on their way;" that "they went direct from one of our own harbors and not by the way of Vera Cruz either;" and that "the yankee's curiosity would be gratified in due time, how our Ministers went to England!" For one I am glad we found out so soon, and that they are going by the way of Boston Harbor! I trust that the F F V's will condescend to make a good long stop in the neighborhood of Bunker Hill. I guess it would be well enough to keep him there till that predicted "roll call." It seems he "protested" against going on board the yankee war steamer, and required "Lincoln's minion" to put his hand on his majesty's shoulder. I expect that was so as to have the thing look sacriligious in the eyes of all the christian nations, and furnish undoubted cause for "my honored state" to take the matter in hand! It is understood too that the great "Envoy and Minister Plenipotentiary" sent his written protest to our little government at Washington. I trust it will receive the early attention of Congress and be referred to a select committee!

It seems that the families of the two embassadors were along, and that they did not come back. Its a pretty considerable of a straw, as showing what the real object of the party was in going abroad "bag and baggage!" It looks a little like "hanging together" so as to be out of danger of "hanging separate," as Franklin said.—But that cursed San Jacinto has sadly frustrated the arrangement. I hope now the Richmond editor will lift the veil of secrecy, and redeem his promise by informing the "curious Yankees HOW OUR MINISTERS WENT TO ENGLAND."

I have not seen any expression of public opinion as to the effect this feat will have upon England. I am not enough of a diplomat to know whether the act can be brought under sanction of our treaty with England respecting the giving up of criminals. If so it will be all right, though I presume the "thunderer" will mutter about it. As "reciprocity" was our card this time, and swept the board so effectually I presume the "Times" will require that all the legal steps shall have been taken—that there shall have been no nigging in shuffle, cut or deal, or else the play will be declared not "according to Hoyle," and of course a quarrel will ensue.

Monday, Nov. 18th, 1861.

I wrote a little yesterday and will add a few lines this morning. The Intelligencer comes out this morning with a leading article on the arrest, the substance of which is that the commander of the San Jacinto made but one legal mistake, and that was that he did not "bring the English steamer in as a prize!" If that is so John Bull may as well vote Capt. Wilkes a pension to the amount of the worth of the steamer and cargo.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 21.

Gen. Halleck has issued orders, that in consequence of the important information respecting the number and condition of our forces being conveyed to the enemy by fugitive slaves, no such persons shall hereafter be permitted to enter the lines of any camp or any forces on the march; and any now within such lines will be immediately excluded therefrom.

The General also calls particular attention of all officers commanding posts or troops in the field, to the importance of preventing unauthorized persons of every description from entering or leaving our lines, and of observing the greatest precaution in the employment of agents or clerks in confidential positions.

The General also directs all the staff officers of the department, whose staff duties have closed under the recent special order from Washington, but who still hold commissions in the regular army, or volunteers mustered into the service of the United States, to immediately report in person, if in St. Louis, or by letter if elsewhere, to these headquarters.

The latest accounts from Price place him in Barry county, making preparations to advance on Springfield.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.

The British gunboat Racer has arrived.

The United States steam transport Baltic, Capt. Comstock, arrived at three P. M. from Port Royal, where she left on Monday the 18th at six o'clock A. M. She towed the United States gunbort Curlew, Lieut. Walmaug, to Sandy Hook.

Col. Allen reports nothing new at Hilton Head. Everything remained in the same condition as left by the Atlantic. He has in his possession about $19,000 in treasury notes which he is to forward to the friends of the New Hampshire 4th regiment.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.

The gunboat Curlew arrived from Port Royal. Her machinery is damaged. When she left the English frigate Immortalize was entering the harbor of Port Royal.—The post office department received 1,500 letters from Hilton Head, per last arrival from there. Government will establish a post office there.

During the week the treasury department will probably take action with regard to custom regulations at Port Royal.

A pamphlet has been privately circulated, making serious charges against General Meigs. The author is an architect, who is desirous of superintending the capitol extension.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 21.

Secession reports are circulating this eveneding that our troops in Northampton county have met with resistance, but they are without truth.

A reconnoisance was made to-day nearly to Vienna, without seeing the enemy.—Prof. Lowe made two balloon ascensions. The only evidence of the presence of rebels were their camp fires near Fairfax Court House, about fifteen miles from here.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.

Lord Lyons has made no offensive comments upon the Mason and Slidell affair.—The reports to the prejudice of that minister which have been put in circulation are positively contradicted in diplomatic circles here, and it is quite certain that Lord Lyons will commit no breach of courtesy. If he has any communications to offer they will be made in official form; but there is no indication that such action is contemplated. The fact in the case is very clear, and that our government ought to seize the rebel commissioners is too clearly established to admit of much argument.

Col. McLeod Murphy's regime t gave an exhibition of the mode of laying a pontoon bridge over the Anacosta river. The work was rapidly and skillfully performed.

Gov. Pierpont and staff have arrived here from Wheeling, Virginia.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.

The Asia arrived at 7 P. M. A meeting of the shareholders of the Great Eastern had been held. The directors report was adopted, and a resolution was passed to raise £25,000 in 10 per cent. debentures to equip her for sea. It was expected she would leave Liverpool again in February.

The British men-of-war Conqueror and Sansparel would embark marines the day the Asia sailed, and forthwith sail for Mexico.

The Times thinks the operations of the expedition will be very easy, but difficulties may arise from the different political sympathies of the three powers.

It was reported that the federal steamer Jas. Adger, now at Southampton, goes to the Mediterranean to look after privateers.

LONDON, Nov. 10.

At the Lord Mayor's banquet, the mayor proposed the foreign ambassadors, and coupled the name of Adams, who replied that his mission to England was to promote and perpetuate friendly relations between the two countries.

Palmerston said although circumstances may, for the time, threaten to inferfere with the supply of cotton, the temporary evil will be productive of permanent good." We shall find in various quarters of the globe sure and ample supply, which will render us no more dependent. We witness with affliction the lamentable difficulties among our American cousins, but it is not for us to pass judgment in their disputes. Lord Palmerston, in conclusion, expressed the hope of a speedy restoration of harmony and peace.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.

It has been officially ascertained that the government has now in camp and in the process of formation, 600,000 volunteers, and the enlistments for the regular service are more numerous than heretofore.

ROLLA, Nov. 22.

Advices from the southwest are to the effect that Price has abandoned his position at Cassville, and is moving toward his old camp at Neosho.

About 4,000 of Price's army, under Gen. Harris, were on the Kansas line, directly west of Carthage, with the evident intention of entering that state, and ravaging its southern counties.

Harris' force was principally cavalry and infantry.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DESPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.

The Mozart Hall democracy last evening nominated the Hon. Fernando Wood, for mayor.

The People's Democratic Union and Rent-Payers organization met yesterday afternoon at the Cooper Institute, and nominated John Kerr, the brewer and excise commissioner, for mayor.

In the board of councilmen last evening, the resolutions presented by the aldermen at their last meeting, tendering the thanks of the people of New York to Capt. Wilkes for his meritorious conduct in causing the arrest of Mason and Slidell, and offering the hospitalities of the city to him, which were referred to the committee on national affairs, were unanimously concurred in.

An ordinance appropriating $500,000 for the relief of the families of the volunteer soldiers of this city was adopted.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.

Tribune correspondence—The papers in the case of Gen. Fremont have for some days been in the hands of Major Lee, judge advocate of the army, who to day made his report to Gen. McClellan. Accompanying the report were charges substantially the same as those preferred by Col. Blair.

Gen. Anderson recently expressed to Gov. Andrew his strong desire that a regiment of Massachusetts soldiers might be sent to Kentucky. He was sure that no sectional feeling would hinder the men of Massachusetts from receiving a hearty welcome in Henry Clay's state.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.

Times' correspondence.—Advices received by the government from Great Britain represent that though much sourness of feeling is evident toward the United States, yet there was a manifest feeling adverse to a war, and that the sentiment in favor of maintaining a strict neutrality was daily strengthening.

Advices from France indicate that the feeling on the part of that government toward the United States is more cordial than ever.

The government has no evidence of any rebel privateer steamer being on the seas, except the Sumter, and she is enabled to elude capture.

Com. Dupont has sent to the navy department the original South Carolina ordinance of secession, beautifully engrossed upon parchment, with the autographs of the South Carolina seceders, headed by Gen. Jameson. The photographs of all the members were also found at Beaufort, with the ordinance, and a large number of other important documents.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 22.

Peterson's Detector cautions the public against counterfeit 10s on the Waterbury Bank, of Conn. It is the best executed and most dangerous counterfeit that has been out for years.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22d.

As far as can be ascertained Lord Lyons has taken no action on the subject of Mason and Slidell's arrest, but will probably await instructions. There has not been even an official conversation between him and the proper department, concerning it. Those who are intimately acquainted with Lord Lyons believe he has observed his usual discretion in refraining from a premature expression of opinion.

The steamer Wyandotte ran the blockade last night and reached the navy yard this morning. She was not fired at. The steamer E. B. Hale also ran the blockade last night, having on board a large quantity of ammunition and ordnance stores generally. Two schooners, loaded with wood, ran the blockade successfully on Wednesday night. The enemy is apparently at work on a new battery at Possum Nose, which is far ahead of the others.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 22.

The boat from Old Point has arrived, but brings no news. It was reported a flag of truce had come from Norfolk with several women and children.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 22.

Col. Mulligan arrived at the depot last night at 9 o'clock where he was tendered the hospitalities of the city by Mayor Hatch He was then escorted to the Burnett house and being called to the balcony was addressed by Hon. Henry Stanbury. Col. Mulligan replied in a short speech, which was enthusiastically applanded by the large assembly. Col. Mulligan will speak a the Catholic Institute this evening and on Monday will probably address a citizens meeting.

The Markets.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.

Flour shade firmer, sales at 5,50a5,60 super western, and 5,65a5,85 common to medium extra western. Wheat market 1a2c better—good export demand, sales 190.000 bushels, 1,24a1,26 Chicago spring; 1,26a 1,27 Racine spring; 1,27a1,28 Milwaukee club.

STAMPEDE FROM THE PATRIARCHAL RELATIONS.—Capt. Bennett with a party of fifty cavalry ventured four miles within the rebel pickets beyond Alexandria. He reports that many of the dwellings, built in fine taste and surrounded by beautiful gardens and shrubbery, have been deserted by their owners, who have not even taken care of their contents. He saw silver ware and other valuables lying on the tables and in the closets, the buildings in their appointments bearing evidence of having been abandoned in great haste. Many of the negroes that he met begged most piteously of him to take them in safety to his camp. There was a general desire expressed by them to come within the federal lines.

Seven negroes belonging to the estate of the late John A. Washington fled from one of his plantations beyond the Occoquan, were brought into Fort Lyon, whence they were sent to Washington.

Gen. Hooker made a reconnoisance at Mathias Point. On returning, the troops were followed by numbers of slaves. One gang numbered 50.

Judge Freese has heard several applications during the past twenty-four hours for judicial aid in the capture of runaway negroes. They were all refused.

REBEL ADVICES FROM COLUMBUS.—From parties who left Columbus on Wednesday, and who are in a position to know fully what they state, we learn that Gen. Polk is still suffering from the injury he received on the occasion of the bursting of the cannon there, and Gen. Pillow was in command. A force was at work cutting down the timber on the Missouri side, opposite Columbus, so as to leave no ambush for the enemy in any event. The people on the Missouri side are in utter consternation, and are flying from their houses. While the Kentucky was up the river on Wednesday, her captain kindly ferried over five families to this side, with their teams and household articles. Fugitives say there is a large amount of corn and hogs in the country, all of which they expect to fall into the hands of the enemy. It has been forcibly kept there by the blockade. The people were destroying or removing all flats, landing-boats, and ferry-boats, that were along the shore. The ferry-boat that crossed near Point Pleasant had been destroyed. A soldier who had been taken prisoner, but who escaped from Cairo, reported that soldiers were coming into that place in great numbers, and that the day before he left (Wednesday) nine regiments arrived. There was a general expectation at Columbus that there will soon be an invasion of a more serious character than the late one at Belmont.—Memphis Appeal, Nov. 16.

Commodore Charles Wilkes, who took the responsibility of seizing rhe rebel emissaries, has long been most favorably known. He was born in New York, in 1805, and has since been in service for forty-three years. From 1833 to 1842 he was in command of the United States exploring expedition in the Pacific and Southern Oceans. His narrative of this expedition, in five volumes, is familiar to all, at least by name. He is also the author of a work entitled "Western America," which contains valuable information relating to California and Oregon. When he performed the exploit for which he will receive the thanks of every patriot, he was on the way home from the coast of Africa.

THE PORK TRADE.—The market for hogs opens tamely. The low prices render feeders tardy in sending forward supplies, and although the weather is favorable, very little, comparatively has been done by packers. Prices opened at $3.10; but several contracts having been made for pork and lard, delivered this month, quotations advanced under a competion for hogs, until to-day they reached $3,35@3,40, and the market was heading strongly for $3.50, until dampened by a heavy decline in pork in New York. After this news there were sales at $3.15. Packers were never more at sea than they are this year. Old lands marks are not of much account. Everything, or pretty much everything, depends on the duration of the war, and as this is uncertain, no one is wise enough or sharp enough to see through the pork trade.—Feeders consider it hard to sell at $3.25, or less, and packers having lost fifty per cent. on last season's business, are naturally very cautious. The latter are quite willing that the former shall take the risks of the trade if they are so disposed, and those who prefer to pack will receive all reasonable aid in the shape of advances.—Cincinnati Gazette, 19th.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.

MORE BLUNDERING IN THE ARMY.—A foraging party went out yesterday from Gen. Wadsworth's brigade. Having procured a large supply of corn, they started back in the afternoon. Five of the wagons were detached from the main body, and halted in the road two and a half miles from Falls Church, the men stacking their guns and moving towards a farm house to get something to eat. A party of rebel cavalry, who had been scouting in the neighborhood, availed themselves of the opportunity thus presented, suddenly rushed between our soldiers and their guns—thus rendering them powerless for resistance. The consequence was the capture of five loaded wagons, and, it is supposed, thirty one prisoners. About ten of the same federal party certainly escaped, and it may be that some of the others may yet return, as it is not improbable that they sought refuge in the woods. They all belong to the 13th New York regiment. The place where they were taken is beyond our own lines, and this unfortunate event is the result of their own carelessness.—N. Y. World, Special Dispatch.

In the attack on the really formidable forts at Port Royal, a distinguished naval officer writes that the very boldness of the attack assured its success:

Instead of fighting the forts at anchor, and exposed to their enfilading fire in the channel, Flag Officer Dupont steamed the entire squadron through the passage and attacked the batteries in flank from the inside of the bay, thus preventing half their guns from being brought to bear upon us, and keeping entirely out of range of one fort, while raining shells upon the other. The vessels followed each other in slow circle, the Wabash leading, each delivering its fire as the guns would bear, and as long as the guns were in range. As the tide rose, the circles swept nearer the shore, and the most effective firing was done at one thousand or twelve hundred yards.

THE THREE CAMP DISEASES.—Soldiers in camp suffer from three diseases: diarrhœa, rheumatism and fever. The commonest cause of diarrhœa is bad water; its cure, complete rest, and abstinence from every kind of food except boiled rice. All ordinary cases will yield to this treatment in 24 hours or less. Rheumatism is usually brought on, not by getting wet, but by remaining in wet clothes. Hard drinkers are particularly liable to bad attacks. To avoid rheumatism, keep dry, wear flannel and keep the digestion sound. Fevers are generally caught after dark in the open air.—A man going out on night duty should never go hungry, and never stand still longer than necessary. Good food and active exercise will generally keep a man well, unless the air is uncommonly deleterious. To cure a case of not very severe fever, nothing seems so efficacious as a change of air. It is said that the removal of a patient only a few miles, often works an immediate improvement in his condition. In scouting along the edge of a swamp at night, there is no danger so long as the party keeps on on the windward side of it. These doctrines are laid down in the writings of army surgeons and of physicians who have given much attention to the subjects discussed, and ought therefore to be trustworthy.—New York Ledger.

A writer in the Boston Transcript comments bitterly on the conduct of Gen. Stone: "He is known to be in high favor with the Maryland secessionists. These fellows express the greatest confidence in Gen. Stone; and why shouldn't they? He orders the troops under his command to obey and observe the laws of Maryland, which forbid the harbor of fugitive slaves, &c.; protect known traitors who have been arrested by subordinate officers for making signals to the enemy, and when brought before him have been discharged with a reprimand to the officers making such arrests; sends back all negroes found in the camps to whoever claims them; and to crown his recommendation to their favor, has needlessly, foolishly, criminally, ordered our Massachusetts troops to unavailing slaughter."

A BAD THREAT.—The rebels, it appears, hold Col. Corcoran and other officers as hostages for the good behaivor of our courts. If we, in the regular exercise of the judicial authority of the nation, condemn any of their pirates to death, they will execute our officers as a retaliation. This is a mere threat; but if they should be wicked enough to hang Col. Corcoran, let us say to them that there are Irishmen enough in this city alone, able and disposed to leave nothing of Charleston but the turkey buzzards.—N. Y. Post.

A PRECEDENT FOR THE ARREST OF MESSRS. MASON AND SLIDELL.—The New York Commercial Advertiser of Saturday evening says:

A similar proceeding on the part of an English vessel of war will probably be within the recollection of some of our readers. We refer to the boarding of the ship Hercules, of Salem, Mass., Capt. Edward West, in a Sardinian port, some 50 years ago, and forcibly taking from on board Lucien Bonaparte, then on his way to the United States. The Hercules put into port on account of the sickness of Lucien Bonaparte, and at his earnest request. An English man-of-war was in port, got wind of the passenger on board, and sent a boatswain with an armed crew, who took Lucien away by force, carried him on board the man-of-war, and he was taken a prisoner to England.

FRANK P. BLAIR.—The Buffalo Commercial mentions the report that Frank P. Blair is likely to be appointed major general of the Missouri state troops, to be organized under a new general order. If he should be appointed, it is exceedingly problematic whether his military career will be a very brilliant one. Whatever else may have happened in Missouri, Col. Blair is pretty effectually used up as a public man.—Sandusky Register.

THE LATEST INVENTION.—The latest invention of which we have heard is a chewing machine—in other words, a little mill intended for toothless people and those who cannot properly masticate their food. Such an article is advertised in the London Lancet. It is fastened to the dinner table, goes with a crank, and is said to mince the food very nicely.

The Manner of Giving Orders.

The following description of the different styles of giving orders, among the officers on the Potomac, is extracted from a letter from the Wisconsin second to the Milwaukee Sentinel:

I have been thinking over some of the amusing things to tell you about—something that we run against in camp every day. I know of nothing that creates more real discussion than the intonation of orders given. The style is as various as the style of trees in a forest, or the items in a first class family newspaper. Now it is a mistaken idea that unfledged officers fall into—that the regular army style is to give orders in so mixed up and unique a style that nobody can understand them. It may be so, but Gen. McDowell always gives his orders clearly, the precautionary word in a distinct voice so that every man can understand him; the order itself in a sharp ringing tone that echoes along the line and impresses itself clearly upon the mind of every man. Gen. King's orders are given clearly and distinctly. Gen. Sherman's and Gen. Stevens' were the same. So with all the officers above the rank of lieutenannt. This latter class are not so particular, and if a regular can have the opportunity of drilling volunteers, the orders are so mutilated, so deficient of any resemblance to what the tactics lay down, that nobody can understand them. Instead of giving the words a pronunciation, they are distorted. A large number of the volunteer officers, instead of taking their cue from their Generals, follow in the footsteps of the subalterns, and imagine as the soldiers say, "they are cutting a day in two." In every regiment, instead of heering the order given thus, "Order Arms," you hear it "der ums," run together, and coming like a grunt from away down deep in the throat, the mouth and tongue having nothing to do with it. To say the least, it sounds disgusting. Then "Halt," is transmogrified into "hol," and "march" into "arch," "pouch," and not unfrequently into "itch." Hundreds of times I have seen troops confounded by an order, not a word of which was intelligible, all sounding, as near as I can give it on paper, "ite flan, ile haut," intended for "by the right flank—by file right," and so on to the end of the chapter.

These are, of course, for the infantry. The cavalry and artillery doing their work on horses, it is excusable in deviating from the general rule. Here the orders are always given distinctly, yet with a prolongation, that comes out ringing and reverbating a long time. It is necessary, for horses cannot be moved like men. The order comes, "r r-r-r-right turn, m-a-r-c-h!" with about ten prolonged "h's" on the end of the last word; and so on through all their orders. I think, and so do many others, that volunteer officers, instead of endeavoring to adopt the army style, would do far better to study to give their commands in a clear and distinct voice, as if they wished to be understood and obeyed rather than to confound their troops with unintelligible, gutteral sounds, and you may tell the officers of the new regiments just so, if you please.

NOVEL OCCUPATION.—One of the items in the report of Wednesday, which failed to reach us, was the following:

BALTIMORE, Nov. 20.

Somewhat of a sensation was produced this morning in the western section of the city by the provost marshal sending a large force of police to Miller's Hotel and seizing the whole establishment and all its contents including a large number of horses, the contents of the bar room, safe and vault.

The object of this movement is said to be to prostrate the mail arrangements of the rebel sympathisers here. It is supposed that from this hotel there has been regular communication kept up to West river and thence to Virginia. The proprietors of this hotel have not been suspected generally, and are regarded as loyal men, but it is supposed certain employees or lodgers have been receiving and transmitting letters south. A number of letters have been seized but have not yet been examined. Two parties, Wm. Hart and John Earl, have been arrested.

BUSINESS IN CHARLESTON.—A letter from Charleston found at Port Royal, is gloomy enough. It says:

"We are doing nothing on Broad street. The brokers all seem to be collapsed.—There is no use to be paying rents and getting back nothing for it.

"There is nothing of any import now in the city. We are looking anxiously to the news of the great battle daily expected on the Potomac. Harriet made the butter this morning, and then the cake. I haven't made as much in a month! But may make an assignment in another, provided I can get anything meanwhile to assign."

Jayne's Ague Mixture

Is an infallible remedy for Fever and Ague. The experience of many years in almost every climate proves that where used strictly in accordance with the directions, it has rarely failed to cure,—not only by breaking up the chills, but by removing the morbid habits of the system, preventing a recurrence of the disease.

Fever and Ague, though not in itself dangerous, is apt, unless speedily removed, to have such a pernicious effect on the system, as to engender disorders much more baneful than itself, and which not only render the afterlife of the patient miserable, but are in themselves often fatal. A prompt and effectual remedy is therefore what is wanted, and as such DR. D. JAYNE'S AGUE MIXTURE is confidently recommended. For sale by G. R. CURTIS,

A New Arrangement.

On the 1st of next January a change will be made in the proprietorship of the Gazette Office by the withdrawal of Mr. Bowen. This change will render absolutely necessary a settlement of the subscriptions and other accounts due the present firm. We hope our friends will give this matter their immediate attention, and leave as few debts as possible for settlement after the change is made. It will be easier and better to all concerned to settle before that time, as a settlement must be made.

The Cavalry Coming.

We have a despatch from Ripon announcing that Col. Daniel's cavalry regiment will leave there to-morrow morning for Kenosha via the Chicago and North-western Railway, and will pass through this city about noon.

Refuse Them.

The bills of the "Bank of Portage," the "Waupun Bank," and the "Dodge County Bank," will be at a heavy discount after the 1st of December. The outstanding circulation of all three only amounts to about $15,000, and the bank association will take care of them if they are paid into the bank before that time. The safe way is to refuse them now, and let them go into the hands of the bankers at once.

A Narrow Escape.—While Miss Lois A. Saunders, was riding home from school in the town of Lima, during the storm of Tuesday the 19th, she jumped or was thrown from her horse, striking on her head, cutting he forehead badly, bruising the top of her head, and cutting her face severely. A friend from whom she borrowed the horse, saw the accident, and went to her assistance. When he reached her, she was upon her feet, insensible, struggling through the mud and rain. She was assisted to her boarding house, where medical aid was procured and she is in a fair way of recovery.

Wisconsin Bills in Nebraska.—The bills of the Bank of Weyauwega are the only Wisconsin bills which circulate in Nebraska. They are "guaranteed" by a banking house in Omaha.

A Friendly Surprise.—The Rangers were quite agreeably surprised this morning by the present to them of 96 beautiful pincushions, from Miss Libbie Cheeny, of Emerald Grove. The fair donor will always be remembered by the Rangers when on the field of strife.

F. F. STEVENS, Capt. Co. F.

Accident on the Northwestern Railroad.—An accident occurred Wednesday morning, by which the conductor of a construction train on the Northwestern railroad, named Bennett, and an engineer by the name of D. A. Lowell, were seriously injured. The train was drawn by the locomotive Watertown, and when running at the usual speed between Carey and Barrington stations, a rail broke and threw the engine from the track, the cars following. The conductor and engineer both leaped from the train and were caught by the cars, and jammed terribly. Bennett, the conductor, had one of his thigh bones fractured, and was otherwise severely injured. Lowell had both legs broken, one below, and the other in the region of the knee.

A box car between the locomotive and gravel cars contained 21 men, and though the car was badly broken up, all the men escaped without serious injury.

☞ John C. Breckinridge the rebel and traitor, is reported to own a quarter of a section of land in the town of Burke, Dane county. He is also, or was, one of the proprietors of the city of Superior, in this state. Here is a work of confiscation for our courts.

County Board of Supervisors.

Thursday, 3 P. M.

The Board met and proceeded to business.

The committee on county buildings reported in favor of allowing the bill of Robert Hodge, $108,55, for repairs on jail.—Adopted.

The committee on miscellaneous accounts reported against the bill of D. L. Mills, $51,94, for distributing session laws. Concurred in.

The committee on illegal taxes reported in favor of cancelling three certificates where the land was imperfectly described. Adopted.

The committee on ways and means reported the following items of tax to be levied the present year:

State tax	$22,820 75
To pay old county orders	10,000 00
Relief of families of volunteers	10,000 00
County school fund	9,840 00
County tax	21,396 00
	$74,065 75

The committee on illegal taxes reported in favor of cancelling tax certificates in the city of Janesville amounting to $17,116 10, and the city of Beloit to $5,989 76—these certificates having been presented and payment demanded.

The report was made the special order for Friday morning at 9 o'clock, and the Board adjourned to that time.

Friday, 9 A. M.

The Board met and proceeded to business.

On motion of Mr. Spooner, the special order, which was the report of the committee on illegal taxes, was taken up.

The chairman made a further report, giving a list of certificates, of various years, defective on account of illegal descriptions, amounting in the city of Janesville to $8,196.51, and in Beloit to $5,528.15.

The forenoon was spent in a discussion by Messrs. Sloan, Conger, Sleeper, Noggle and Tallman, in relation to the general subject of the certificates issued under the the law declared unconstitutional by the supreme court, and in which several members of the board participated. The board adjourned to 2 o'clock P. M. without taking any action.

Horses Wanted.—The attention of persons who have horses to sell is directed to the advertisement of Sanger & Wallace.

County Aid to Volunteers.—The board of Dane county have resolved that the pay to the families of volunteers from that county, provided by the county, shall date from the 1st of July last, provided such volunteers had then enlisted. No payment will be made on account of volunteers who were not residents of the county on the 1st of July.

The Louisville Journal says the only channel of uninterrupted communication at present between the loyal and the rebel states, is through Henderson, Ky. There is quite a local trade between Henderson and Hopkinsville, and the citizens of each place pass and re-pass daily without obstruction.

The Lone White Man Found Drunk.—Barnum offers $1,000 for the lone representative of southern chivalry found drunk at Beaufort, South Carolina, when that place was taken possession of by northern troops.

A letter from Beaufort, dated on the 10th, says: "I expect we will have another fight in a few days—probably at the fort up the Bay."

Missing.—A. J. Felt, of Bradford, Iowa, once an editor on the McGregor Times, and more recently a member of the "brave 7th Iowa," and a war correspondent of the Times, was among the list of missing at the battle of Belmont. Whether he is alive or dead, a prisoner of war or one of those said to be coming into camp since the battle, no one knows.

The Late Lord Campbell's Brain.—It is said that a post mortem examination of Lord Campbell took place. Amongst other things the faculty speak of the enormous weight of the brain of the Lord Chancellor. It weighed fifty three ounces and a quarter. Cuvier's was the largest ever known, being fifty-nine ounces, but not healthy like Lord Campbell's. The average weight of the brain is 46 ounces.

Money Sent Home.—The volunteers during the past two days have sent home to their families nearly fifty thousand dollars. It is estimated that they will send over two hundred thousand dollars this week.—Wash. Cor. Phil. Press.

Slidell's Early Exploits.—In a sketch of the early career of Slidell in New York, the Tribune of that city says:

"Early in life he went to the south, having been detected in an infamous crime, from the immediate consequence of which he escaped by sliding down a water-pipe from a chamber window. A duel afterwards followed, and, having nearly added murder to adultery, he fled."

AGENCY FOR NATIONAL LOAN.

PURSUANT to instructions from the Secretary of the Treasury, a book will be opened on the twentieth day of November, 1861, at my office, in Janesville, for subscriptions under my superintendence for Treasury Notes, to be issued under the act of July 17, 1861. These notes will be issued in sums of fifty dollars, one hundred dollars, five hundred dollars, one thousand dollars, and five thousand dollars each, dated 19th August, 1861, payable three years after date to the order of the subscriber or as directed, and bearing interest at the rate of 7 3-10 per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually; such interest being at the rate of two cents each day on every hundred dollars. For the convenience of the holder, each note will have coupons attached expressing the several amounts of semi-annual interest, which coupons may be detached and presented for payment separately from the notes.

Subscriptions for such Treasury Notes will be received during fifteen days from the day of opening the book as aforesaid and afterwards. No subscription for less than fifty dollars nor for any fraction of that sum can be received. Subscriptions of fifty dollars or one hundred dollars must be paid in lawful coin of the United States at the time of subscribing. Subscriptions of more than one hundred dollars may be paid at once; or, if preferred, one tenth at the time of subscribing and one-third of the whole amount on every twentieth day thereafter until the whole shall be paid. No payment of less than fifty dollars can be accepted, that being the smallest sum for which Treasury Notes can be issued.

Certificates will be granted in duplicate to subscribers for the amounts so paid, the original of which the subscriber will transmit by mail to the Secretary of the Treasury, when Treasury Notes, as aforesaid, will be issued thereon to such subscriber or his order, carrying interest as expressed in such certificates; but in cases where only a part of the amount subscribed is paid at the time of subscribing, Treasury Notes will be issued only for the payments made subsequently to the first, which will remain until the whole amount subscribed by such person shall be paid, when Treasury Notes will be issued for such first payment also. On payment of each deferred instalment, the subscriber will pay, in addition thereto, a sum equal to the interest accrued thereon from the 19th of August to the date of payment, and on final payment like interest on the amount paid on subscription, which payments of interest will be reimbursed to the subscriber in the payment of the first coupon.

The Treasury Notes issued upon such certificates by the Treasury will be sent to the subscribers my mail, or such other mode as may be indicated by them when they transmit their original certificates. The duplicate certificates may be retained by them for their own security.

A New Arrangement.

On the 1st of next January a change will be made in the proprietorship of the Gazette Office by the withdrawal of Mr. Bowen. This change will render absolutely necessary a settlement of the subscriptions and other accounts due the present firm. We hope our friends will give this matter their immediate attention, and leave as few debts as possible for settlement after the change is made. It will be easier and better to all concerned to settle before that time, as a settlement must be made.

WOOD! WOOD!

Subscribers to the daily or weekly Gazette who wish to pay in WOOD, are requested to furnish it now. Any number of new subscriptions can be paid in this way.

The Cavalry Coming.

We have a despatch from Ripon announcing that Col. Daniel's cavalry regiment will leave there to-morrow morning for Kenosha via. the Chicago and North-western Railway, and will pass through this city about noon.

Refuse Them.

The bills of the "Bank of Portage," the "Waupun Bank," and the "Dodge County Bank," will be at a heavy discount after the 1st of December. The outstanding circulation of all three only amounts to about $15,000, and the bank association will take care of them if they are paid into the bank before that time. The safe way is to refuse them now, and let them go into the hands of the bankers at once.

A NARROW ESCAPE.—While Miss Lois A. Saunders, was riding home from school in the town of Lima, during the storm of Tuesday the 19th, she jumped or was thrown from her horse, striking on her head, cutting he forehead badly, bruising the top of her head, and cutting her face severely. A friend from whom she borrowed the horse, saw the accident, and went to her assistance. When he reached her, she was upon her feet, insensible, struggling through the mud and rain. She was assisted to her boarding house, where medical aid was procured and she is in a fair way of recovery.

WISCONSIN BILLS IN NEBRASKA.—The bills of the Bank of Weyauwega are the only Wisconsin bills which circulate in Nebraska. They are "guaranteed" by a banking house in Omaha.

A FRIENDLY SURPRISE.—The Rangers were quite agreeably surprised this morning by the present to them of 96 beautiful pincushions, from Miss Libbie Cheeny, of Emerald Grove. The fair donor will always be remembered by the Rangers when on the field of strife.

F. F. STEVENS, Capt. Co. F.

ACCIDENT ON THE NORTHWESTERN RAILROAD.—An accident occurred Wednesday morning, by which the conductor of a construction train on the Northwestern railroad, named Bennett, and an engineer by the name of D. A. Lowell, were seriously injured. The train was drawn by the locomotive Watertown, and when running at the usual speed between Carey and Barrington stations, a rail broke and threw the engine from the track, the cars following. The conductor and engineer both leaped from the train and were caught by the cars, and jammed terribly. Bennett, the conductor, had one of his thigh bones fractured, and was otherwise severely injured. Lowell had both legs broken, one below, and the other in the region of the knee.

A box car between the locomotive and gravel cars contained 21 men, and though the car was badly broken up, all the men escaped without serious injury.

☞ John C. Breckinridge the rebel and traitor, is reported to own a quarter of a section of land in the town of Burke, Dane county. He is also, or was, one of the proprietors of the city of Superior, in this state. Here is a work of confiscation for our courts.

The rebel ambassador Slidell's secretary of legation is Mr. Eustis, the son-in-law of the wealthy banker, W. W. Corcoran, of Washington.

County Board of Supervisors.

THURSDAY, 3 P. M.

The Board met and proceeded to business.

The committee on county buildings reported in favor of allowing the bill of Robert Hedge, $108,55, for repairs on jail.—Adopted.

The committee on miscellaneous accounts reported against the bill of D. L. Mills, $51,94, for distributing session laws. Concurred in.

The committee on illegal taxes reported in favor of cancelling three certificates where the land was imperfectly described. Adopted.

The committee on ways and means reported the following items of tax to be levied the present year:

State tax	$22,820 75
To pay old county orders	10,000 00
Relief of families of volunteers	10,000 00
County school fund	9,840 00
County tax	21,396 00
	$74,065 75

The committee on illegal taxes reported in favor of cancelling tax certificates in the city of Janesville amounting to $17,116 10, and the city of Beloit to $5,989 76—these certificates having been presented and payment demanded.

The report was made the special order for Friday morning at 9 o'clock, and the Board adjourned to that time.

FRIDAY, 9 A. M.

The Board met and proceeded to business.

On motion of Mr. Spooner, the special order, which was the report of the committee on illegal taxes, was taken up.

The chairman made a further report, giving a list of certificates, of various years, defective on account of illegal descriptions, amounting in the city of Janesville to $8,196.54, and in Beloit to $5,528.15.

The forenoon was spent in a discussion by Messrs. Sloan, Conger, Sleeper, Noggle and Tallman, in relation to the general subject of the certificates issued under the the law declared unconstitutional by the supreme court, and in which several members of the board participated. The board adjourned to 2 o'clock P. M. without taking any action.

HORSES WANTED.—The attention of persons who have horses to sell is directed to the advertisement of Sanger & Wallace.

COUNTY AID TO VOLUNTEERS.—The board of Dane county have resolved that the pay to the families of volunteers from that county, provided by the county, shall date from the 1st of July last, provided such volunteers had then enlisted. No payment will be made on account of volunteers who were not residents of the county on the 1st of July.

The Louisville Journal says the only channel of uninterrupted communication at present between the loyal and the rebel states, is through Henderson, Ky. There is quite a local trade between Henderson and Hopkinsville, and the citizens of each place pass and re-pass daily without obstruction.

THE LONE WHITE MAN FOUND DRUNK.—Barnum offers $1,000 for the lone representative of southern chivalry found drunk at Beaufort, South Carolina, when that place was taken possession of by northern troops.

A letter from Beaufort, dated on the 10th, says: "I expect we will have another fight in a few days—probably at the fort up the Bay."

MISSING.—A. J. Felt, of Bradford, Iowa, once an editor on the McGregor Times, and more recently a member of the "brave 7th Iowa," and a war correspondent of the Times, was among the list of missing at the battle of Belmont. Whether he is alive or dead, a prisoner of war or one of those said to be coming into camp since the battle, no one knows.

THE LATE LORD CAMPBELL'S BRAIN.—It is said that a post mortem examination of Lord Campbell took place. Amongst other things the faculty speak of the enormous weight of the brain of the Lord Chancellor. It weighed fifty three ounces and a quarter. Cuvier's was the largest ever known, being fifty-nine ounces, but not healthy like Lord Campbell's. The average weight of the brain is 46 ounces.

MONEY SENT HOME.—The volunteers during the past two days have sent home to their families nearly fifty thousand dollars. It is estimated that they will send over two hundred thousand dollars this week.—Wash. Cor. Phil. Press.

SLIDELL'S EARLY EXPLOITS.—In a sketch of the early career of Slidell in New York, the Tribune of that city says:

"Early in life he went to the south, having been detected in an infamous crime, from the immediate consequence of which he escaped by sliding down a water-pipe from a chamber window. A duel afterwards followed, and, having nearly added murder to adultery, he fled."

New Fall and Winter Millinery.

The Largest and Best Stock of the Season.

MISS REYNOLDS informs her friends and the public that she has now the largest and best stock of ever offered for sale by her. Her stock comprises all the latest style of materials and manufactured work, and every article will be sold at the preferring to sell at a small profit rather than keep her goods over for another season.

Bonnets from $1,50 to $10,00, according to style and quality. Caps and Head-dresses constantly on hand. In short, everything kept in a first class Millinery Store will be found in her shop, or manufactured promptly to order. All her purchases were made for cash, and she is thus enabled to sell at the lowest living profits.

DRESS MAKING.

She is also prepared to cut or make dresses in the latest styles, or change old dresses to the new styles.

Her friends and the public generally are invited to call and examine. Shop in the old place, Exchange Block, west end of Upper Bridge.

AGENCY FOR NATIONAL LOAN.

PURSUANT to instructions from the Secretary of the Treasury, a book will be opened on the twentieth day of November, 1861, at my office, in Janesville, for subscriptions under my superintendence for Treasury Notes, to be issued under the act of July 17, 1861. These notes will be issued in sums of fifty dollars, one hundred dollars, five hundred dollars, one thousand dollars, and five thousand dollars each, dated 19th August, 1861, payable three years after date to the order of the subscriber or as directed, and bearing interest at the rate of 7 3-10 per cent, per annum, payable semi-annually; such interest being at the rate of two cents each day on every hundred dollars. For the convenience of the holder, each note will have coupons attached expressing the several amounts of semi-annual interest, which coupons may be detached and presented for payment separately from the notes.

Subscriptions for such Treasury Notes will be received during fifteen days from the day of opening the book as aforesaid and afterwards. No subscription for less than fifty dollars nor for any fraction of that sum can be received. Subscriptions of fifty dollars or one hundred dollars must be paid in lawful coin of the United States at the time of subscribing. Subscriptions of more than one hundred dollars may be paid at once; or, if preferred, one tenth at the time of subscribing and one-third of the whole amount on every twentieth day thereafter until the whole shall be paid. No payment of less than fifty dollars can be accepted, that being the smallest sum for which Treasury Notes can be issued.

Certificates will be granted in duplicate to subscribers for the amounts so paid, the original of which the subscriber will transmit by mail to the Secretary of the Treasury, when Treasury Notes, as aforesaid, will be issued thereon to such subscriber or his order, carrying interest as expressed in such certificate; but in cases where only a part of the amount subscribed is paid at the time of subscribing, Treasury Notes will be issued only for the payments made subsequently to the first, which will remain until the whole amount subscribed by such person shall be paid, when Treasury Notes will be issued for such first payment also. On payment of each deferred instalment, the subscriber will pay, in addition thereto, a sum equal to the interest accrued thereon from the 19th of August to the date of payment, and on final payment like interest on the amount paid on subscription, which payments of interest will be reimbursed to the subscriber in the payment of the first coupon.

The Treasury Notes issued upon such certificates by the Treasury will be sent to the subscribers by mail, or such other mode as may be indicated by them when they transmit their original certificates. The duplicate certificates may be retained by them for their own security. WM. M. TALLMAN, Agent

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

The only Correct and Complete

HISTORY OF THE WAR.

THE SOUTHERN REBELLION

and the

WAR FOR THE UNION:

A History of the

Rise and Progress of the Rebellion,

and

Consecutive Narrative of Events and Incidents, from the First Stages of the Treason Against the Republic down to the Close of the Conflict,

TOGETHER WITH IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS AND EXTRACTS FROM REMARKABLE SPEECHES.

In Weekly Parts, 32 pages, large 8vo, Price 10 Cents.

THE want of an authentic and thorough History of the Rebellion, for present reference and future preservation, is the subject of general remark. No work of that nature has yet been offered to the public, and all who wish for information are compelled to grope through the mazes of the rumors, reports, dispatches, letters and editorials of the daily newspapers, to precipitate, from its confused columns, the great facts and incidents of the struggle for the Union.

To meet this want, and to produce a work of permanent value as well as of present interest, the publisher has arranged for the issue of the history as above set forth—in a form and at a price which shall render it acceptable to all.

This history will tell the STORY AS IT IS, giving a clear, consecutive narrative of the entire movement, including all the incidents and events in their exact order, and containing the important documents and extracts from remarkable speeches. It will not be a mere diary, nor a mere enumeration of dry and naked dates, nor a compilation of slips from newspapers, but will portray in connected and interesting narrative, the revolutionary steps, as well as the measures of the government.

It will carefully digest all evidence—will sift all rumors and reports—will fix upon facts, and correct so far as possible the errors and discrepancies incident to the hasty narratives of the newspapers.

It will be written in a style suited to its theme—at once graphic, earnest and luminous, introducing such personal and social incidents as may serve to show the relations of individuals and communities to the grand events of the time.

It is true, everybody reads the newspapers, but the reports of the newspapers are the fragmentary and contradictory children of the moment, and not a correct, connected and complete history. The above publication, afterwards bound in a handsome volume, will be a book for the family, which will be valued like the records of the War of Independence, or the Life of Washington, and worthy to be kept for children and grand children, as a memorial of the present time.

It will thus prove desirable, available and satisfactory to every citizen, every family, every office, every library: and is given to the public in the full assurance that it will command the approbation of every patriot, every Union man, every good citizen in our still Glorious Land.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

The only Correct and Complete

HISTORY OF THE WAR.

THE SOUTHERN REBELLION

and the

WAR FOR THE UNION:

A History of the

Rise and Progress of the Rebellion,

and

Consecutive Narrative of Events and Incidents, from the First Stages of the Treason Against the Republic down to the Close of the Conflict,

TOGETHER WITH IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS AND EXTRACTS FROM REMARKABLE SPEECHES.

In Weekly Parts, 32 pages, large 8vo, Price 10 Cents.

THE want of an authentic and thorough History of the Rebellion, for present reference and future preservation, is the subject of general remark. No work of that nature has yet been offered to the public, and all who wish for information are compelled to grope through the mazes of the rumors, reports, dispatches, letters and editorials of the daily newspapers, to precipitate, from its confused columns, the great facts and incidents of the struggle for the Union.

To meet this want, and to produce a work of permanent value as well as of present interest, the publisher has arranged for the issue of the history as above set forth—in a form and at a price which shall render it acceptable to all.

This history will tell the STORY AS IT IS, giving a clear, consecutive narrative of the entire movement, including all the incidents and events in their exact order, and containing the important documents and extracts from remarkable speeches. It will not be a mere diary, nor a mere enumeration of dry and naked dates, nor a compilation of slips from newspapers, but will portray in connected and interesting narrative, the revolutionary steps, as well as the measures of the government.

It will carefully digest all evidence—will sift all rumors and reports—will fix upon facts, and correct so far as possible the errors and discrepancies incident to the hasty narratives of the newspapers.

It will be written in a style suited to its theme—at once graphic, earnest and luminous, introducing such personal and social incidents as may serve to show the relations of individuals and communities to the grand events of the time.

It is true, everybody reads the newspapers, but the reports of the newspapers are the fragmentary and contradictory children of the moment, and not a correct, connected and complete history. The above publication, afterwards bound in a handsome volume, will be a book for the family, which will be valued like the records of the War of Independence, or the Life of Washington, and worthy to be kept for children and grand-children, as a memorial of the present time.

It will thus prove desirable, available and satisfactory to every citizen, every family, every office, every library: and is given to the public in the full assurance that it will command the approbation of every patriot, every Union man, every good citizen in our still Glorious Land.

DAILY GAZETTE.

Address to the Wisconsin Eleventh.

The following eloquent address to the officers of the Wisconsin Eleventh, was delivered by Geo. C. Bates, Esq., upon the occasion of a dinner given to them at Chicago, on the recent passage of the regiment through that city, on their way to Missouri:

Officers of the Wisconsin Eleventh Regiment:

The generous and laudable liberality of the managing officers and agents of the Chicago, Alton and St. Louis railroad company and the Chicago and Northwestern railroad company, who are not more distinguished for their energy and dispatch as railroad officers, than for their loyalty as citizens, and their courtesy and boundless hospitality as gentlemen, have spread this bounteous board for your enjoyment, under the roof of the time-honored Tremont, and have invited me, a comparative stranger to them, and an entire stranger to you, to welcome you to this great metropolis of the northwest, and to bid you God speed on your journey from the northern lakes to the banks of the Missouri. You have taken leave of the beautiful oak lands, the silver lakelets, and broad and rich prairies of Wisconsin, where peace, and joy, and contentment reign, to endure amidst the sleet and storms, and snows of a northwestern winter, the grim and dreadful realities and sufferings of war, on the plains, along the rivers, and amidst the now desolated, and ruined, and blackened, and deserted homes of the once prosperous and beautiful Missouri.—The change to most of you is a great and trying one; for, as mere holiday soldiers, as carpet knights, who have not yet seen or realized the horrors of war, you know little of the onerous duties, the fearful responsibilities, and the dreadful sacrifices that lie along your pathway, and no one but that of God can see or tell how far or how many shall ever return to those dear homes, and precious wives, and bright-eyed children, you have left behind you. Your presence, Colonel, and yours, officers of the Wisconsin Eleventh, reflect the highest honor on yourselves, and add another and yet another leaf to the chaplet of immortal glory that Wisconsin, one of the fairest, youngest and most joyous daughters of this Union, has woven for herself during this dreadful crisis of our republic. It has been said that peace hath its triumphs as well as war; but no centuries of peace in our beloved Union could ever crown us with such immortal honor as the last eight months of war has done. The dormant energies of the government had slept so long that it seemed that they could know no waking. The mighty powers, and wealth, and energies of twenty millions of freemen had so long been paralyzed by the mesmeric power of peace, prosperity and success, that it seemed at first as if the north were an emasculated, enervated, and debauched people, "who neither knew their own rights, or by knowing, dare maintain." Europe, looking on at the distracted condition of the country, and the apparent slowness of the actions of the government against those arch fiends and secession devils who have rebelled against our beneficent and genial government, even as the angels and arch-angels of the Evil One uprose against the institutes and ordinances of God, had already declared in their own courts, and had published through their wily diplomats over the whole European world, that the American Union was destroyed—that the United States had already ceased to exist. "Fuit Ilium" —Troy was. "Delenga Carthago est"—Carthage had been.

Behold the greet mistake. At the call of congress you, the 500th part of a splendid army—not of conscripts, not of drafted men—but volunteers, intelligent, educated American citizens, are here to-day, and to-morrow's sunset shall behold your serried ranks, with 30,000 more such, on the banks of the Missouri, hand in hand, gathered around that time-honored flag, ready to fight for it, ready to die for it. Strange, soldiers, does it seem to me, to meet here so gallant a regiment, but a twentieth part of what Wisconsin has already sent to the field.—But a few years since, and just as I had turned the period of manhood, I stood, on a lovely evening in June, on the plateau that crowns the amphitheatre of hills that surround the metropolis of Wisconsin and watched the sun as it sank to rest away beyond the western rivers and mountains, I looked off to Lake Michigan sleeping in all its beauty and calmness like a child upon its mother's breast. The smoke that curled from old Juneau's log cabin and relieved the beautiful back ground of sky and hill side, told of the only white settler then located on that beautiful spot. Between there and the Father of Waters lay one boundless waste of plain and woodland, and here and there, at remote distances, the log hut of the hunter and trapper, the stockade of an infantry company, or the hamlet and trading post of the engagees of the American Fur Company, constituted the entire population of what is now three empire states—Wisconsin, Iowa, and Minnesota. At the call of our country, Wisconsin has already furnished during the present year more volunteers for the war than at that period constituted the entire population of northern Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa and Minnesota. Noble, true-hearted Wisconsin! Well may she point with pride to her magic and Minerva-like growth from a desert and wilderness to a garden and home of 800,000 freemen. Well may she point with pride and glory to that great net-work of railway, that encircles her zone from Lake Michigan to the Mississippi like the girdle of beauty that grasped the glaring waist of Venus; well may she point to her school houses planted side by side with the log-cabin of the pioneer, where her children are instructed in their duties as freemen, as patriots, as students, as Christians; well may she point with pride to her houses whose pointed spires, reaching to heaven, proclaim their dedication to God, and which are evidence of their religious and moral culture; but above all, can she point to you, soldiers, and your gallant fellowsoldiers, now almost twenty thousand strong, and say with pride, "These are my jewels." And looking back on the past and forward to the future, with conscious triumph in her eyes, well may she exclaim in the pride of conscious triumph—

"Quis jam locus, inquit Achate,
Quæ regio in terris, non natu
Pleana laboris."

Officers of the Eleventh, the movements of that grand army of which you are so soon to become a conspicuous part, have already changed the entire aspect of public matters, and our position both at home and abroad. To-day, thank God, the stars and the stripes wave over not only the states of the north and northwest, but they flout the heavens in the Old Dominion, in the dark and bloody ground of Kentucky, Missouri, North Carolina, and even in chivalrous and brave South Carolina; and the citizens of Charleston and Savannah are put to sleepless beds at night by the evening guns and the tattoo of the Union troops who are quietly but steadily advancing over the sacred soil of the Carolinas and Georgia toward the gulf of Mexico, and their frightful dreams like those of the infamous Richard, are disturbed by the morning drum-beat and stirring reveille that salutes the stars and the stripes as they float in the morning air at Beaufort, at Pensacola, at Fortress Monroe. Nay more, Soldiers,—the spirit of the Northmen is fully aroused, and traitors and their infamous and lying dispatches that have sought protection like cowards, as they are, beneath the lion and the unicorn, on the decks of an English mail steamer, are seized in pursuance of the well-settled rules of international law by a true Yankee sailor, and the infamous bearers of those dispatches are now sent to cool their blushes at their own infamy, at a fortress in Boston Harbor, right undur the shadow of Bunker Hill. Day has dawned, soldiers, on the cause of truth and justice, and the Union. God smiles on the work and you go forth only to keep complete the triumph of that cause of the Union now so auspiciously begun. Beaufort, Port Royal, Fort Beauregard, and Belmont, are but precursors of yet nobler and brighter victories. Whilst he captue of Mason and Slidell from the British mail vessel "Trent," engaged in the transportation of ministers and dispatches contraband of war, has taught England herself that if she cannot enforce the proclamation of her noble Queen, yet that such traitors as Slidell and Mason cannot escape the lynx eyes or the bold hands and brave hearts of such men as Wilkes and his gallant Yankee sailors. Go, and God's blessing go with you. It may be your fate never to return. So be it. Bear in mind that a soldier's grave is a nation's monument; that a nation's tears will water its sod, and thousands of generations will stop as they pass it, and say "there rests one of the gallant soldiers of the great army of the Union." If you fall, fall like brave men and true sons of Wisconsin,

With your backs to the field, and your feet to the foe:
As victors exult, or in death be laid low;
And leaving on earth no blot on your name,
Look proudly to heaven from the death-bed of fame.

GREAT REDUCTION —IN— The Prices —OF— SINGER & CO.'S STANDARD MACHINES,

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $75.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis.

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

The Property of a Rebel Preserved.

If the government intends to confiscate any of the property of rebels, the Arlington estate of Gen. Lee affords a good opportunity. It is situated opposite Washington, in plain sight of the White House, is surrounded by our armies, and is necessary to the defence of the capitol of the nation. Instead of confiscating or destroying this property of a rank rebel, Arlington has been under the especial protection of Gen. McDowell, ever since the war commenced. While other property all around it has been used for the accommodation of our soldiers and erecting fortifications, Lee's property is actually undergoing improvements as we learn from an army letter: "New out-buildings are put up around the mansion, and the roads are considerably improved. Near the mansion, and from a half to a full mile around it, on all sides, no timber has been cut, but beyond that it has been slaughtered. I hear that Lee wrote to Gen. McDowell, asking, as a favor, that no timber be cut on the estate, and I know that, a few days since, when we wanted some logs to build a stable of, Gen. McDowell would'nt let anybody cut near the spot, but we had to go away off beyond the estate to get them. This is very considerate—very kind, indeed,—when it is one of the first principles of the rebels on the line to destroy all they cannot carry away of the property of Union men that falls into their hands. Still Gen. McDowell is right. The troops have been careful not to deface or destroy anything on the estate, and everything is spared. Hunter's house, not a great ways off, met with a worse fate, being pillaged, and then broken up to make flooring for soldier's tents."

A Slight Difference of Opinion.

There was a disagreement between Secretaries Cameron and Smith, in their speeches at the supper given to Geo. D. Prentice, in Washington, on Wednesday evening. Secretary Cameron declared that as a last resort we ought to arm every man who desires to strike for human liberty. Secretary Smith protested that the administration contemplated no such policy, and that if twenty millions of freemen could not single handed, subdue this rebellion, they ought to give it up.

From this there would appear to be a disagreement in the cabinet in relation to this matter. Secretary Smith would let the nation perish rather than accept aid from the slave; we think he would not carry this principle into practice in regard to his own life. If Smith should be drowning and a negro should offer to help him, we think the instincts of the man would prevail over the education of the politician.

After a few months the Secretary of the department of Indiana will change his mind, and a new cabinet minister will be wanted. This war will not, with the consent of the people be protracted a great while longer, to satisfy the whims of doughface politicians, when it could be ended immediately by doing justice to four millions of people.

A Precedent.

"Should England protest against the overhauling of the steamer Trent, having on board the rebel plenipotentiaries, it may be pertinent to remind her of some quite recent precedents in her own history. Here is one: When Thomas. F. Meagher escaped from a British penal colony, he sought refuge, if our memory serves us correctly, on board an American vessel. The vessel was boarded by English officers and thoroughly searched; but fortunately the search was unsuccessful. Our government did not consider its flag insulted, and demanded no redress for the "insult."

The New York Herald, which is no lover of the democracy, says three to one of the volunteers from that city are democrats, but the shoddy is all on the other side—the republicans have furnished all the shoddy, and received all the army steals. Just so out here.—Madison Patriot.

So brazen a falsehood as this ought to make even Pump Carpenter blush. Every intelligent man knows that no such state of things exists in Wisconsin, and every candid man will admit it.

Fremont's Insubordination.—We learn from very good authority, that Gen. Fremont has expressed his regret that he did not know the object of Cameron and Gen. Thomas' visit of inspection to his department, or he would have arrested both and detained them as prisoners. Mr. Cameron deceived him by writing him a letter in which he assured him his object in going to Missouri was to disabuse the public of injurious rumors affecting his (F.'s) character.—Albany Argus.

The above is a specimen of the reckless charges made against Gen. Fremont. The statement carries its own refutation in its improbability.

A paragraph, originating with the Chicago Journal, purporting to give the politics of the colonels of the several Wisconsin regiments still circulates. It contains two errors. Col. Hamilton (now general) and Col. Chapin are republicans, not democrats as stated by the paragraph in question.

Ashland, Burnett, Clark, Dallas, Douglas, Dunn, Eau Claire, Kewaunee, La Fayette and La Pointe counties are to be heard from officially. The counties officially returned, and reports from the others, give Harvey 8,370 majority. The plurality for Mr. Salomon, for Lt. From Washington.

Extract from a private letter to a gentleman in this city:

Washington, Nov. 17th 1861.

I did not write you yesterday, I had just taken up my pen to do so when an unusually jubilant conversation broke out in the "Ordinance Department" just across the passage from my room, and on going to see what was up got the news of the return of our fishing party down about the West Indies. It was such a glorious haul that I could not think of doing any thing but crow! I have for years held Old Mason in utter contempt, and felt awfully galled to have him go swelling off to England in spite of the "yankee blockade." Although I read the despatch I could hardly believe it and thought I would step over to the chief clerk's office and hear from head-quarters, but at the door I met Senator Wilson all agrin who assured me it was all right—"that is," said he "if they don't let them off on parole!" I trust now that his mightiness James M. Mason may have time for a retrospect of his tyrannical life. How dreadfully he will hate to go to a yankee lockup. He'll pine no doubt for the walls of Monroe rather than Warren. About a week ago I saw an article in one of the Richmond papers on "Our Ministers to England and France—Messrs. Mason and Slidell!" They were declared to be "safe on their way;" that "they went direct from one of our own harbors and not by the way of Vera Cruz either;" and that "the yankee's curiosity would be gratified in due time, how our Ministers went to England!" For one I am glad we found out so soon, and that they are going by the way of Boston Harbor! I trust that the F F V's will condescend to make a good long stop in the neighborhood of Bunker Hill. I guess it would be well enough to keep him there till that predicted "roll call." It seems he "protested" against going on board the yankee war steamer, and required "Lincoln's minion" to put his hand on his majesty's shoulder. I expect that was so as to have the thing look sacriligious in the eyes of all the christian nations, and furnish undoubted cause for "my honored state" to take the matter in hand! It is understood too that the great "Envoy and Minister Plenipotentiary" sent his written protest to our little government at Washington. I trust it will receive the early attention of Congress and be referred to a select committee!

It seems that the families of the two embassadors were along, and that they did not come back. Its a pretty considerable of a straw, as showing what the real object of the party was in going abroad "bag and baggage!" It looks a little like "hanging together" so as to be out of danger of "hanging separate," as Franklin said.—But that cursed San Jacinto has sadly frustrated the arrangement. I hope now the Richmond editor will lift the veil of secrecy, and redeem his promise by informing the "curious Yankees how our Ministers went to England."

I have not seen any expression of public opinion as to the effect this feat will have upon England. I am not enough of a diplomat to know whether the act can be brought under sanction of our treaty with England respecting the giving up of criminals. If so it will be all right, though I presume the "thunderer" will mutter about it. As "reciprocity" was our card this time, and swept the board so effectually I presume the "Times" will require that all the legal steps shall have been taken—that there shall have been no nigging in shuffle, cut or deal, or else the play will be declared not "according to Hoyle," and of course a quarrel will ensue.

Monday, Nov. 18th, 1861.

I wrote a little yesterday and will add a few lines this morning. The Intelligencer comes out this morning with a leading article on the arrest, the substance of which is that the commander of the San Jacinto made but one legal mistake, and that was that he did not "bring the English steamer in as a prize!" If that is so John Bull may as well vote Capt. Wilkes a pension to the amount of the worth of the steamer and cargo.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

St. Louis, Nov. 21.

Gen. Halleck has issued orders, that in consequence of the important information respecting the number and condition of our forces being conveyed to the enemy by fugitive slaves, no such persons shall hereafter be permitted to enter the lines of any camp or any forces on the march; and any now within such lines will be immediately excluded therefrom.

The General also calls particular attention of all officers commanding posts or troops in the field, to the importance of preventing unauthorized persons of every description from entering or leaving our lines, and of observing the greatest precaution in the employment of agents or clerks in confidential positions.

The General also directs all the staff officers of the department, whose staff duties have closed under the recent special order from Washington, but who still hold commissions in the regular army, or volunteers mustered into the service of the United States, to immediately report in person, if in St. Louis, or by letter if elsewhere, to these headquarters.

The latest accounts from Price place him in Barry county, making preparations to advance on Springfield.

New York, Nov. 21.

The British gunboat Racer has arrived.

The United States steam transport Baltic, Capt. Comstock, arrived at three P. M. from Port Royal, where she left on Monday the 18th at six o'clock A. M. She towed the United States gunbort Curlew, Lieut. Walmaug, to Sandy Hook.

Col. Allen reports nothing new at Hilton Head. Everything remained in the same condition as left by the Atlantic. He has in his possession about $19,000 in treasury notes which he is to forward to the friends of the New Hampshire 4th regiment.

New York, Nov. 21.

The gunboat Curlew arrived from Port Royal. Her machinery is damaged. When she left the English frigate Immortalize was entering the harbor of Port Royal.—The post office department received 1,500 letters from Hilton Head, per last arrival from there. Government will establish a post office there.

During the week the treasury department will probably take action with regard to custom regulations at Port Royal.

A pamphlet has been privately circulated, making serious charges against General Meigs. The author is an architect, who is desirous of superintending the capitol extension.

Baltimore, Nov. 21.

Secession reports are circulating this eveneding that our troops in Northampton county have met with resistance, but they are without truth.

A reconnoisance was made to-day nearly to Vienna, without seeing the enemy.—Prof. Lowe made two balloon ascensions. The only evidence of the presence of rebels were their camp fires near Fairfax Court House, about fifteen miles from here.

Washington, Nov. 21.

Lord Lyons has made no offensive comments upon the Mason and Slidell affair.—The reports to the prejudice of that minister which have been put in circulation are positively contradicted in diplomatic circles here, and it is quite certain that Lord Lyons will commit no breach of courtesy. If he has any communications to offer they will be made in official form; but there is no indication that such action is contemplated. The fact in the case is very clear, and that our government ought to seize the rebel commissioners is too clearly established to admit of much argument.

Col. McLeod Murphy's regime t gave an exhibition of the mode of laying a pontoon bridge over the Anacosta river. The work was rapidly and skillfully performed.

Gov. Pierpont and staff have arrived here from Wheeling, Virginia.

New York, Nov. 21.

The Asia arrived at 7 P. M. A meeting of the shareholders of the Great Eastern had been held. The directors report was adopted, and a resolution was passed to raise £25,000 in 10 per cent. debentures to equip her for sea. It was expected she would leave Liverpool again in February.

The British men-of-war Conqueror and Sansparel would embark marines the day the Asia sailed, and forthwith sail for Mexico.

The Times thinks the operations of the expedition will be very easy, but difficulties may arise from the different political sympathies of the three powers.

It was reported that the federal steamer Jas. Adger, now at Southampton, goes to the Mediterranean to look after privateers.

London, Nov. 10.

At the Lord Mayor's banquet, the mayor proposed the foreign ambassadors, and coupled the name of Adams, who replied that his mission to England was to promote and perpetuate friendly relations between the two countries.

Palmerston said although circumstances may, for the time, threaten to inferfere with the supply of cotton, the temporary evil will be productive of permanent good." We shall find in various quarters of the globe sure and ample supply, which will render us no more dependent. We witness with affliction the lamentable difficulties among our American cousins, but it is not for us to pass judgment in their disputes. Lord Palmerston, in conclusion, expressed the hope of a speedy restoration of harmony and peace.

Washington, Nov. 21.

It has been officially ascertained that the government has now in camp and in the process of formation, 600,000 volunteers, and the enlistments for the regular service are more numerous than heretofore.

Rolla, Nov. 22.

Advices from the southwest are to the effect that Price has abandoned his position at Cassville, and is moving toward his old camp at Neosho.

About 4,000 of Price's army, under Gen. Harris, were on the Kansas line, directly west of Carthage, with the evident intention of entering that state, and ravaging its southern counties.

Harris' force was principally cavalry and infantry.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DESPATCHES.

New York, Nov. 22.

The Mozart Hall democracy last evening nominated the Hon. Fernando Wood, for mayor.

The People's Democratic Union and Rent-Payers organization met yesterday afternoon at the Cooper Institute, and nominated John Kerr, the brewer and excise commissioner, for mayor.

In the board of councilmen last evening, the resolutions presented by the aldermen at their last meeting, tendering the thanks of the people of New York to Capt. Wilkes for his meritorious conduct in causing the arrest of Mason and Slidell, and offering the hospitalities of the city to him, which were referred to the committee on national affairs, were unanimously concurred in.

An ordinance appropriating $500,000 for the relief of the families of the volunteer soldiers of this city was adopted.

Washington, Nov. 21.

Tribune correspondence—The papers in the case of Gen. Fremont have for some days been in the hands of Major Lee, judge advocate of the army, who to day made his report to Gen. McClellan. Accompanying the report were charges substantially the same as those preferred by Col. Blair.

Gen. Anderson recently expressed to Gov. Andrew his strong desire that a regiment of Massachusetts soldiers might be sent to Kentucky. He was sure that no sectional feeling would hinder the men of Massachusetts from receiving a hearty welcome in Henry Clay's state.

Washington, Nov. 21.

Times' correspondence.—Advices received by the government from Great Britain represent that though much sourness of feeling is evident toward the United States, yet there was a manifest feeling adverse to a war, and that the sentiment in favor of maintaining a strict neutrality was daily strengthening.

Advices from France indicate that the feeling on the part of that government toward the United States is more cordial than ever.

The government has no evidence of any rebel privateer steamer being on the seas, except the Sumter, and she is enabled to elude capture.

Com. Dupont has sent to the navy department the original South Carolina ordinance of secession, beautifully engrossed upon parchment, with the autographs of the South Carolina seceders, headed by Gen. Jameson. The photographs of all the members were also found at Beaufort, with the ordinance, and a large number of other important documents.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

Philadelphia, Nov. 22.

Peterson's Detector cautions the public against counterfeit 10s on the Waterbury Bank, of Conn. It is the best executed and most dangerous counterfeit that has been out for years.

Washington, Nov. 22d.

As far as can be ascertained Lord Lyons has taken no action on the subject of Mason and Slidell's arrest, but will probably await instructions. There has not been even an official conversation between him and the proper department, concerning it. Those who are intimately acquainted with Lord Lyons believe he has observed his usual discretion in refraining from a premature expression of opinion.

The steamer Wyandotte ran the blockade last night and reached the navy yard this morning. She was not fired at. The steamer E. B. Hale also ran the blockade last night, having on board a large quantity of ammunition and ordnance stores generally. Two schooners, loaded with wood, ran the blockade successfully on Wednesday night. The enemy is apparently at work on a new battery at Possum Nose, which is far ahead of the others.

Baltimore, Nov. 22.

The boat from Old Point has arrived, but brings no news. It was reported a flag of truce had come from Norfolk with several women and children.

Cincinnati, Nov. 22.

Col. Mulligan arrived at the depot last night at 9 o'clock where he was tendered the hospitalities of the city by Mayor Hatch. He was then escorted to the Burnett house and being called to the balcony was addressed by Hon. Henry Stanbury. Col. Mulligan replied in a short speech, which was enthusiastically applauded by the large assembly. Col. Mulligan will speak a the Catholic Institute this evening and on Monday will probably address a citizens meeting.

The Markets.

New York, Nov. 22.

Flour shade firmer, sales at 5,50a5,60 super western, and 5,65a5,85 common to medium extra western. Wheat market 1a2c better—good export demand, sales 190.000 bushels, 1,24a1,26 Chicago spring; 1,26a1,27 Racine spring; 1,27a1,28 Milwaukee club.

Stampede from the Patriarchal Relations.—Capt. Bennett with a party of fifty cavalry ventured four miles within the rebel pickets beyond Alexandria. He reports that many of the dwellings, built in fine taste and surrounded by beautiful gardens and shrubbery, have been deserted by their owners, who have not even taken care of their contents. He saw silver ware and other valuables lying on the tables and in the closets, the buildings in their appointments bearing evidence of having been abandoned in great haste. Many of the negroes that he met begged most piteously of him to take them in safety to his camp. There was a general desire expressed by them to come within the federal lines.

Seven negroes belonging to the estate of the late John A. Washington fled from one of his plantations beyond the Occoquan, were brought into Fort Lyon, whence they were sent to Washington.

Gen. Hooker made a reconnoisance at Mathias Point. On returning, the troops were followed by numbers of slaves. One gang numbered 50.

Judge Freese has heard several applications during the past twenty-four hours for judicial aid in the capture of runaway negroes. They were all refused.

Rebel Advices from Columbus.—From parties who left Columbus on Wednesday, and who are in a position to know fully what they state, we learn that Gen. Polk is still suffering from the injury he received on the occasion of the bursting of the cannon there, and Gen. Pillow was in command. A force was at work cutting down the timber on the Missouri side, opposite Columbus, so as to leave no ambush for the enemy in any event. The people on the Missouri side are in utter consternation, and are flying from their houses. While the Kentucky was up the river on Wednesday, her captain kindly ferried over five families to this side, with their teams and household articles. Fugitives say there is a large amount of corn and hogs in the country, all of which they expect to fall into the hands of the enemy. It has been forcibly kept there by the blockade. The people were destroying or removing all flats, landing-boats, and ferry-boats, that were along the shore. The ferry-boat that crossed near Point Pleasant had been destroyed. A soldier who had been taken prisoner, but who escaped from Cairo, reported that soldiers were coming into that place in great numbers, and that the day before he left (Wednesday) nine regiments arrived. There was a general expectation at Columbus that there will soon be an invasion of a more serious character than the late one at Belmont.—Memphis Appeal, Nov. 16.

Commodore Charles Wilkes, who took the responsibility of seizing rhe rebel emissaries, has long been most favorably known. He was born in New York, in 1805, and has since been in service for forty three years. From 1833 to 1842 he was in command of the United States exploring expedition in the Pacific and Southern Oceans. His narrative of this expedition, in five volumes, is familiar to all, at least by name. He is also the author of a work entitled "Western America," which contains valuable information relating to California and Oregon. When he performed the exploit for which he will receive the thanks of every patriot, he was on the way home from the coast of Africa.

The Pork Trade.—The market for hogs opens tamely. The low prices render feeders tardy in sending forward supplies, and although the weather is favorable, very little, comparatively has been done by packers. Prices opened at $3.10; but several contracts having been made for pork and lard, delivered this month, quotations advanced under a competion for hogs, until to-day they reached $3,35@3,40, and the market was heading strongly for $3.50, until dampened by a heavy decline in pork in New York. After this news there were sales at $3.15. Packers were never more at sea than they are this year. Old lands marks are not of much account. Everything, or pretty much everything, depends on the duration of the war, and as this is uncertain, no one is wise enough or sharp enough to see through the pork trade.—Feeders consider it hard to sell at $3.25, or less, and packers having lost fifty per cent. on last season's business, are naturally very cautious. The latter are quite willing that the former shall take the risks of the trade if they are so disposed, and those who prefer to pack will receive all reasonable aid in the shape of advances.—Cincinnati Gazette, 19th.

Washington, Nov. 17.

More Blundering in the Army.—A foraging party went out yesterday from Gen. Wadsworth's brigade. Having procured a large supply of corn, they started back in the afternoon. Five of the wagons were detached from the main body, and halted in the road two and a half miles from Falls Church, the men stacking their guns and moving towards a farm house to get something to eat. A party of rebel cavalry, who had been scouting in the neighborhood, availed themselves of the opportunity thus presented, suddenly rushed between our soldiers and their guns—thus rendering them powerless for resistance. The consequence was the capture of five loaded wagons, and, it is supposed, thirty one prisoners. About ten of the same federal party certainly escaped, and it may be that some of the others may yet return, as it is not improbable that they sought refuge in the woods. They all belong to the 13th New York regiment. The place where they were taken is beyond our own lines, and this unfortunate event is the result of their own carelessness.—N. Y. World, Special Dispatch.

In the attack on the really formidable forts at Port Royal, a distinguished naval officer writes that the very boldness of the attack assured its success:

Instead of fighting the forts at anchor, and exposed to their enfilading fire in the channel, Flag Officer Dupont steamed the entire squadron through the passage and attacked the batteries in flank from the inside of the bay, thus preventing half their guns from being brought to bear upon us, and keeping entirely out of range of one fort, while raining shells upon the other. The vessels followed each other in slow circle, the Wabash leading, each delivering its fire as the guns would bear, and as long as the guns were in range. As the tide rose, the circles swept nearer the shore, and the most effective firing was done at one thousand or twelve hundred yards.

The Three Camp Diseases.—Soldiers in camp suffer from three diseases: diarrhœa, rheumatism and fever. The commonest cause of diarrhœa is bad water; its cure, complete rest, and abstinence from every kind of food except boiled rice. All ordinary cases will yield to this treatment in 24 hours or less. Rheumatism is usually brought on, not by getting wet, but by remaining in wet clothes. Hard drinkers are particularly liable to bad attacks. To avoid rheumatism, keep dry, wear flannel and keep the digestion sound. Fevers are generally caught after dark in the open air.—A man going out on night duty should never go hungry, and never stand still longer than necessary. Good food and active exercise will generally keep a man well, unless the air is uncommonly deleterious. To cure a case of not very severe fever, nothing seems so efficacious as a change of air. It is said that the removal of a patient only a few miles, often works an immediate improvement in his condition. In scouting along the edge of a swamp at night, there is no danger so long as the party keeps on on the windward side of it. These doctrines are laid down in the writings of army surgeons and of physicians who have given much attention to the subjects discussed, and ought therefore to be trustworthy.—New York Ledger.

A writer in the Boston Transcript comments bitterly on the conduct of Gen. Stone: "He is known to be in high favor with the Maryland secessionists. These fellows express the greatest confidence in Gen. Stone; and why shouldn't they? He orders the troops under his command to obey and observe the laws of Maryland, which forbid the harbor of fugitive slaves, &c.; protect known traitors who have been arrested by subordinate officers for making signals to the enemy, and when brought before him have been discharged with a reprimand to the officers making such arrests; sends back all negroes found in the camps to whoever claims them; and to crown his recommendation to their favor, has needlessly, foolishly, criminally, ordered our Massachusetts troops to unavailing slaughter."

A Bad Threat.—The rebels, it appears, hold Col. Corcoran and other officers as hostages for the good behavior of our courts. If we, in the regular exercise of the judicial authority of the nation, condemn any of their pirates to death, they will execute our officers as a retaliation. This is a mere threat; but if they should be wicked enough to hang Col. Corcoran, let us say to them that there are Irishmen enough in this city alone, able and disposed to leave nothing of Charleston but the turkey buzzards.—N. Y. Post.

A Precedent for the Arrest of Messrs. Mason and Slidell.—The New York Commercial Advertiser of Saturday evening says:

A similar proceeding on the part of an English vessel of war will probably be within the recollection of some of our readers. We refer to the boarding of the ship Hercules, of Salem, Mass., Capt. Edward West, in a Sardinian port, some 50 years ago, and forcibly taking from on board Lucien Bonaparte, then on his way to the United States. The Hercules put into port on account of the sickness of Lucien Bonaparte, and at his earnest request. An English man-of-war was in port, got wind of the passenger on board, and sent a boatswain with an armed crew, who took Lucien away by force, carried him on board the man-of-war, and he was taken a prisoner to England.

Frank P. Blair.—The Buffalo Commercial mentions the report that Frank P. Blair is likely to be appointed major general of the Missouri state troops, to be organized under a new general order. If he should be appointed, it is exceedingly problematic whether his military career will be a very brilliant one. Whatever else may have happened in Missouri, Col. Blair is pretty effectually used up as a public man.—Sandusky Register.

The Latest Invention.—The latest invention of which we have heard is a chewing machine—in other words, a little mill intended for toothless people and those who cannot properly masticate their food. Such an article is advertised in the London Lancet. It is fastened to the dinner table, goes with a crank, and is said to mince the food very nicely.

The Manner of Giving Orders.

The following description of the different styles of giving orders, among the officers on the Potomac, is extracted from a letter from the Wisconsin second to the Milwaukee Sentinel:

I have been thinking over some of the amusing things to tell you about—something that we run against in camp every day. I know of nothing that creates more real dissension than the intonation of orders given. The style is as various as the style of trees in a forest, or the items in a first class family newspaper. Now it is a mistaken idea that unfledged officers fall into—that the regular army style is to give orders in so mixed up and unique a style that nobody can understand them. It may be so, but Gen. McDowell always gives his orders clearly, the precautionary word in a distinct voice so that every man can understand him; the order itself in a sharp ringing tone that echoes along the line and impresses itself clearly upon the mind of every man. Gen. King's orders are given clearly and distinctly. Gen. Sherman's and Gen. Stevens' were the same. So with all the officers above the rank of lieutenannt. This latter class are not so particular, and if a regular can have the opportunity of drilling volunteers, the orders are so mutilated, so deficient of any resemblance to what the tactics lay down, that nobody can understand them. Instead of giving the words a pronunciation, they are distorted. A large number of the volunteer officers, instead of taking their cue from their Generals, follow in the footsteps of the subalterns, and imagine as the soldiers say, "they are cutting a day in two." In every regiment, instead of heering the order given thus, "Order Arms," you hear it "der ums," run together, and coming like a grunt from away down deep in the throat, the mouth and tongue having nothing to do with it. To say the least, it sounds disgusting. Then "Halt," is transmogrified into "hol," and "march" into "arch," "pouch," and not unfrequently into "itch." Hundreds of times I have seen troops confounded by an order, not a word of which was intelligible, all sounding, as near as I can give it on paper, "ile flan, ile haut,' intended for "by the right flank—by file right," and so on to the end of the chapter.

These are, of course, for the infantry. The cavalry and artillery doing their work on horses, it is excusable in deviating from the general rule. Here the orders are always given distinctly, yet with a prolongation, that comes out ringing and reverbating a long time. It is necessary, for horses cannot be moved like men. The order comes, "r-r-r-right turn, m-a-r-c-h!" with about ten prolonged "h's" on the end of the last word; and so on through all their orders. I think, and so do many others, that volunteer officers, instead of endeavoring to adopt the army style, would do far better to study to give their commands in a clear and distinct voice, as if they wished to be understood and obeyed rather than to confound their troops with unintelligible, gutteral sounds, and you may tell the officers of the new regiments just so, if you please.

Novel Occupation.—One of the items in the report of Wednesday, which failed to reach us, was the following:

Baltimore, Nov. 20.

Somewhat of a sensation was produced this morning in the western section of the city by the provost marshal sending a large force of police to Miller's Hotel and seizing the whole establishment and all its contents including a large number of horses, the contents of the bar room, safe and vault.

The object of this movement is said to be to prostrate the mail arrangements of the rebel sympathisers here. It is supposed that from this hotel there has been regular communication kept up to West river and thence to Virginia. The proprietors of this hotel have not been suspected generally, and are regarded as loyal men, but it is supposed certain employees or lodgers have been receiving and transmitting letters south. A number of letters have been seized but have not yet been examined. Two parties, Wm. Hurt and John Earl, have been arrested.

Business in Charleston.—A letter from Charleston found at Port Royal, is gloomy enough. It says:

"We are doing nothing on Broad street. The brokers all seem to be collapsed.—There is no use to be paying rents and getting back nothing for it.

"There is nothing of any import now in the city. We are looking anxiously to the news of the great battle daily expected on the Potomac. Harriet made the butter this morning, and then the cake. I haven't made as much in a month! But may make an assignment in another, provided I can get anything meanwhile to assign."

Jayne's Ague Mixture

Is an infallible remedy for Fever and Ague. The experience of many years in almost every climate proves that where used strictly in accordance with the directions, it has rarely failed to cure,—not only by breaking up the chills, but by removing the morbid habits of the system, preventing a recurrence of the disease.

Fever and Ague, though not in itself dangerous, is apt, unless speedily removed, to have such a pernicious effect on the system, as to engender disorders much more baneful than itself, and which not only render the afterlife of the patient miserable, but are in themselves often fatal. A prompt and effectual remedy is therefore what is wanted, and as such Dr. D. Jayne's Ague Mixture is confidently reccommended. For sale by G. R. CURTIS,

Refuse Them.

The bills of the "Bank of Portage," the "Waupun Bank," and the "Dodge County Bank," will be at a heavy discount after the 1st of December. The outstanding circulation of all three only amounts to about $15,000, and the bank association will take care of them if they are paid into the bank before that time. The safe way is to refuse them now, and let them go into the hands of the bankers at once.

A NARROW ESCAPE.—While Miss Lois A. Saunders, was riding home from school in the town of Lima, during the storm of Tuesday the 19th, she jumped or was thrown from her horse, striking on her head, cutting he forehead badly, bruising the top of her head, and cutting her face severely. A friend from whom she borrowed the horse, saw the accident, and went to her assistance. When he reached her, she was upon her feet, insensible, struggling through the mud and rain. She was assisted to her boarding house, where medical aid was procured and she is in a fair way of recovery.

WISCONSIN BILLS IN NEBRASKA.—The bills of the Bank of Weyauwega are the only Wisconsin bills which circulate in Nebraska. They are "guaranteed" by a banking house in Omaha.

A FRIENDLY SURPRISE.—The Rangers were quite agreeably surprised this morning by the present to them of 96 beautiful pincushions, from Miss Libbie Cheeny, of Emerald Grove. The fair donor will always be remembered by the Rangers when on the field of strife.

ACCIDENT ON THE NORTWESTERN RAILROAD.—An accident occurred Wednesday morning, by which the conductor of a construction train on the Northwestern railroad, named Bennett, and an engineer by the name of D. A. Lowell, were seriously injured. The train was drawn by the locomotive Watertown, and when running at the usual speed between Carey and Barrington stations, a rail broke and threw the engine from the track, the cars following. The conductor and engineer both leaped from the train and were caught by the cars, and jammed terribly. Bennett, the conductor, had one of his thigh bones fractured, and was otherwise severely injured. Lowell had both legs broken, one below, and the other in the region of the knee.

A box car between the locomotive and gravel cars contained 21 men, and though the car was badly broken up, all the men escaped without serious injury.

☞ John C. Breckinridge the rebel and traitor, is reported to own a quarter of a section of land in the town of Burke, Dane county. He is also, or was, one of the proprietors of the city of Superior, in this state. Here is a work of confiscation for our courts.

County Board of Supervisors.

THURSDAY, 3 P. M.

The Board met and proceeded to business.

The committee on county buildings reported in favor of allowing the bill of Robert Hedge, $108,55, for repairs on jail.—Adopted.

The committee on miscellaneous accounts reported against the bill of D. L. Mills, $51,94, for distributing session laws. Concurred in.

The committee on illegal taxes reported in favor of cancelling three certificates where the land was imperfectly described. Adopted.

The committee on ways and means reported the following items of tax to be levied the present year:

State tax	$22,820 75
To pay old county orders	10,000 00
Relief of families of volunteers	10,000 00
County school fund	9,840 00
County tax	21,396 00
	$74,065 75

The committee on illegal taxes reported in favor of cancelling tax certificates in the city of Janesville amounting to $17,116 10, and the city of Beloit to $5,989 76—these certificates having been presented and payment demanded.

The report was made the special order for Friday morning at 9 o'clock, and the Board adjourned to that time.

FRIDAY, 9 A. M.

The Board met and proceeded to business.

On motion of Mr. Spooner, the special order, which was the report of the committee on illegal taxes, was taken up.

The chairman made a further report, giving a list of certificates, of various years, defective on account of illegal descriptions, amounting in the city of Janesville to $8,-196.54, and in Beloit to $5,528.15.

The forenoon was spent in a discussion by Messrs. Sloan, Conger, Sleeper, Noggle and Tallman, in relation to the general subject of the certificates issued under the the law declared unconstitutional by the supreme court, and in which several members of the board part'cipated. The board adjourned to 2 o'clock P. M. without taking any action.

HORSES WANTED.—The attention of persons who have horses to sell is directed to the advertisement of Sauger & Wallace.

COUNTY AID TO VOLUNTEERS.—The board of Dane county have resolved that the pay to the families of volunteers from that county, provided by the county, shall date from the 1st of July last, provided such volunteers had then enlisted. No payment will be made on account of volunteers who were not residents of the county on the 1st of July.

The Louisville Journal says the only channel of uninterrupted communication at present between the loyal and the rebel states, is through Henderson, Ky. There is quite a local trade between Henderson and Hopkinsville, and the citizens of each place pass and re-pass daily without obstruction.

THE LONE WHITE MAN FOUND DRUNK.—Barnum offers $1,000 for the lone representative of southern chivalry found drunk at Beaufort, South Carolina, when that place was taken possession of by northern troops.

A letter from Beaufort, dated on the 10th, says: "I expect we will have another fight in a few days—probably at the fort up the Bay."

MISSING.—A. J. Felt, of Bradford, Iowa, once an editor on the McGregor Times, and more recently a member of the "brave 7th Iowa," and a war correspondent of the Times, was among the list of missing at the battle of Belmont. Whether he is alive or dead, a prisoner of war or one of those said to be coming into camp since the battle, no one knows.

THE LATE LORD CAMPBELL'S BRAIN.—It is said that a post mortem examination of Lord Campbell took place. Amongst other things the faculty speak of the enormous weight of the brain of the Lord Chancellor. It weighed fifty three ounces and a quarter. Cuvier's was the largest ever known, being fifty-nine ounces, but not healthy like Lord Campbell's. The average weight of the brain is 46 ounces.

MONEY SENT HOME.—The volunteers during the past two days have sent home to their families nearly fifty thousand dollars. It is estimated that they will send over two hundred thousand dollars this week.—Wash. Cor. Phil. Press.

SLIDELL'S EARLY EXPLOITS.—In a sketch of the early career of Slidell in New York, the Tribune of that city says:

"Early in life he went to the south, having been detected in an infamous crime, from the immediate consequence of which he escaped by sliding down a water-pipe from a chamber window. A duel afterwards followed, and, having nearly added murder to adultery, he fled."

AGENCY FOR NATIONAL LOAN.

PURSUANT to instructions from the Secretary of the Treasury, a book will be opened on the twentieth day of November, 1861, at my office, in Janesville, for subscriptions under my superintendence for Treasury Notes, to be issued under the act of July 17, 1861. These notes will be issued in sums of fifty dollars, one hundred dollars, five hundred dollars, one thousand dollars, and five thousand dollars each, dated 19th August, 1861, payable three years after date to the order of the subscriber or as directed, and bearing interest at the rate of 7 3-10 per cent, per annum, payable semi-annually; such interest being at the rate of two cents each day on every hundred dollars. For the convenience of the holder, each note will have coupons attached expressing the several amounts of semi-annual interest, which coupons may be detached and presented for payment separately from the notes.

Subscriptions for such Treasury Notes will be received during fifteen days from the day of opening the book as aforesaid and afterwards. No subscription for less than fifty dollars nor for any fraction of that sum can be received. Subscriptions of fifty dollars or one hundred dollars must be paid in lawful coin of the United States at the time of subscribing. Subscriptions of more than one hundred dollars may be paid at once; or, if preferred, one tenth at the time of subscribing and one-third of the whole amount on every twentieth day thereafter until the whole shall be paid. No payment of less than fifty dollars can be accepted, that being the smallest sum for which Treasury Notes can be issued.

Certificates will be granted in duplicate to subscribers for the amounts so paid, the original of which the subscriber will transmit by mail to the Secretary of the Treasury, when Treasury Notes, as aforesaid, will be issued thereon to such subscriber or his order, carrying interest as expressed in such certificate; but in cases where only a part of the amount subscribed is paid at the time of subscribing, Treasury Notes will be issued only for the payments made subsequently to the first, which will remain until the whole amount subscribed by such person shall be paid, when Treasury Notes will be issued for such first payment also. On payment of each deferred instalment, the subscriber will pay, in addition thereto, a sum equal to the interest accrued thereon from the 19th of August to the date of payment, and on final payment like interest on the amount paid on subscription, which payments of interest will be reimbursed to the subscriber in the payment of the first coupon.

The Treasury Notes issued upon such certificates by the Treasury will be sent to the subscribers my mail, or such other mode as may be indicated by them when they transmit their original certificates. The duplicate certificates may be retained by them for their own security. WM. M. TALLMAN, Agent

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

Cash Capital over - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

The only Correct and Complete

HISTORY OF THE WAR.

THE SOUTHERN REBELLION

and the

WAR FOR THE UNION:

A History of the

Rise and Progress of the Rebellion,

and

Consecutive Narrative of Events and Incidents, from the First Stages of the Treason Against the Republic down to the Close of the Conflict,

TOGETHER WITH IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS AND EXTRACTS FROM REMARKABLE SPEECHES.

In Weekly Parts, 32 pages, large 8vo, Price 10 Cents.

THE want of an authentic and thorough History of the Rebellion, for present reference and future preservation, is the subject of general remark. No work of that nature has yet been offered to the public, and all who wish for information are compelled to grope through the mazes of the rumors, reports, dispatches, letters and editorials of the daily newspapers, to precipitate, from its confused columns, the great facts and incidents of the struggle for the Union.

To meet this want, and to produce a work of permanent value as well as of present interest, the publisher has arranged for the issue of the history as above set forth—in a form and at a price which shall render it acceptable to all.

This history will tell the STORY AS IT IS, giving a clear, consecutive narrative of the entire movement, including all the incidents and events in their exact order, and containing the important documents and extracts from remarkable speeches. It will not be a mere diary, nor a mere enumeration of dry and naked dates, nor a compilation of slips from newspapers, but will portray in connected and interesting narrative, the revolutionary steps, as well as the measures of the government.

It will carefully digest all evidence—will sift all rumors and reports—will fix upon facts, and correct so far as possible the errors and discrepancies incident to the hasty narratives of the newspapers.

It will be written in a style suited to its theme—at once graphic, earnest and luminous, introducing such personal and social incidents as may serve to show the relations of individuals and communities to the grand events of the time.

It is true, everybody reads the newspapers, but the reports of the newspapers are the fragmentary and contradictory children of the moment, and not a correct, connected and complete history. The above publication, afterwards bound in a handsome volume, will be a book for the family, which will be valued like the records of the War of Independence, or the Life of Washington, and worthy to be kept for children and grand-children, as a memorial of the present time.

It will thus prove desirable, available and satisfactory to every citizen, every family, every office, every library; and is given to the public in the full assurance that it will command the approbation of every patriot, every Union man, every good citizen in our still Glorious Land.
